

MISS UNIVERSE MAKES PEACE CONTRIBUTION

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Miss Universe, the 20-year-old Rina Messinger of Israel, came to New York, captivated the press and was captivated herself by the city. "I thought New York must be ugly and unpleasant," she said. "But New York is beautiful and the people here are really nice." The 5'7-1/2" army sergeant is the first Israeli to be crowned the "world's most beautiful woman." She said that "As Miss Universe I can reach people who are usually not interested LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE in politics and are not familiar with the problems of the Mideast. In that way I can make a modest contribution to peace." Ms. Messinger, who won her crown in Hong Kong, also noted that "as Miss Universe I can show the world that life in Israel is not all war." Ms. Messinger said she already misses Israel very much. She said she is contributing part of her $10,000 cash prize to the fund for wounded Israeli soldiers.
