LAS VEGAS

BY KEN GOUSSAK

Last week Jack Entratter AZA pulled off their second annual successful car wash at the Texaco on Maryland Parkway. Business was slow for most of the day, but the chapter sold over thirty dollars worth of pre-sales tickets. Another car wash of this kind is to be held September 10. For more information, please contact Toby Handelmon at 382-3765.

Las Vegas AZA is still looking for some new members if you know of any boy who would like to join this organization call Steve Katz at 735-0013 for Vegas AZA and Ken Goussak for Entratter at 458-3674.

Entratter AZA, as you know, just had that car wash, and we of Entratter AZA would like to thank all of our supporters who took the time to come down and get their car washed. In the future Entratter is planning an overnight at the gym with Vegas AZA, a Banana-a-thon where five members get pledges from people and they get one hour to eat as many donated bananas as possible, and then they go around and collect all of the pledges and it is all put in the bank for later use. Also in the planning is a trip to Lake Mead with one of the girls chapters to hold workshops, have a picnic, pick up trash around the lake area and have lotsa fun.

Las Vegas BBG is holding their annual fashion show at the Desert Inn country club August 25. For tickets contact Fran Cohen at 735-4492. They are also having an Ice Skating party, a picnic, a sleepover at the JCC, an assortment of parties, and a car wash to raise some funds. To find out about membership please contact Janet Cohen at 735-4492.

Paradise Valley did not give me a report on their activities, but as for them I know they are looking for some members to start off the new year. They are also planning some parties, and some fundraisers. So if you are interested in joining this organization please contact Lisa Mades at 736-7544.
