

CHARLENE GOLDMAN ASSEMBLY 8

Well into her door-to-door campaign in Assembly District Eight, CHARLENE GOLDMAN has found the voters responsive towards her willingness to hear their views and to express her own. Keeping an accurate record of voters' preferences on the Equal Rights Amendment and Consolidation of Government in Clark County is expected to reflect the desired mandate on two of the top twelve issues in this year's election.

Married for seventeen years to Judge Paul Goldman, CHARLENE is the mother of three daughters. In addition to her full participation in family activities, CHARLENE energetically serves as a Commissioner on the Nevada State Council on the Arts, having been appointed and re-appointed by Governor Mike O'Callaghan since 1973. Her enthusiasm for the arts has also led to her appointment, by the Clark County Commission, as its representative and Chairman, of the Committee for the Community Arts Specialist for Southern Nevada; her appointment as the Nevada Representative to the Western States Art Foundation Conference; and her election to the NSCA Education Committee.

Active as a member of both the Clark County Democratic Central Committee and the Nevada State Democratic Central Committee (1974 - 1976), CHARLENE GOODMAN was named as one of the National Delegates for Jimmy Carter.

CHARLENE presently serves on the Board of Directors, National Conference of Christians and Jews, Board of Directors, Family Counseling of Nevada, and, from 1973 to 1975, on the Board of Directors Multiple Sclerosis (MS). She has served as Troop Co-Leader, Frontier Girl Scouts, been Chairman, Annual Neighbor-to-Neighbor Campaign for the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Nevada, and has County Parent-Teachers' Association.

CHARLENE GOLDMAN feels deeply honored by the recent endorsement of her candidacy for Assembly District Eight by the American Federation of Teachers, recognizing her intense interest in both improving and maintaining the level of educational opportunities here in Southern Nevada. Her grateful acceptance of this support does not, however, affect her motto: "YOU are the only special interest CHARLENE GOLDMAN will represent in the State Assembly."

Few, if any, other candidates for public office in this 1976 campaign are as knowledgeable as CHARLENE in dealing with the fundamental, often street-wise clash of priorities facing government today. In-cisiveness, not vagueness; practical, not wasteful; confident, not timid; open, not secretive; candid, no double-talk; these are

JIM COREY FOR COMMISSION B

A former Las Vegas city commissioner, Jim Corey, has entered the race for county commission seat B.

Corey, 52, is a Democrat, a veteran of the restaurant business and is currently involved in property sales, public relations and show ticket sales.

His political credits include service on the city commission, the Las Vegas Convention Authority, the County Board of Equalization, the Nevada Municipal Association, the Nevada Public Works Association, the Las Vegas Planning Commission and the Southern Nevada Industrial Foundation.

He is a past member of the board of directors of the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce and the County Welfare Advisory Board and was a founder of the Better Business Bureau, the United Fund Drive and the Las Vegas Merchants Association.

The son of a Las Vegas pioneer family, Corey has lived in Clark County for 40 years. He served in the Air Force during World War II. His civic affiliations have included the Las Vegas Jaycees, the March of Dimes, the Boulder City Chamber of Commerce, the Clark County Restaurant Association, the Nevada State Jaycees, the Las Vegas Municipal Golf Board, the Rotary, Shrine, and Elks Clubs, the Masonic Lodge and the American Legion.

"With all seven seats up for election this year and the possibility that all the commissioners could be brand new, it is important that experience be placed on the board," Corey said. "I've been in the kitchen. I can take the heat."

LORETTA GIBBS FOR ASSEMBLY 2

Loretta Gibbs, a candidate for State Assembly, District 2, says it takes the kind of common sense and innovative determination she possesses to make the tough decisions in our Nevada legislature.

She maintains that being a good leader in government requires being a good follower of public's interest.

Loretta and her husband Roy are parents of three sons, one daughter, and grandparents of two.

She is a P.T.A. historian, a charter member of Board of Directors of Foster Parents of Nevada, a member of Clark County Care Assn., and a member of Flotilla 9 - 1 of Coast Guard Auxiliary.

Mrs. Gibbs is an outspoken advocate of Clark County Community College in West Charleston area.

Peace & Quiet

If you're like most people you don't decide on an apartment because it's got a big Jacuzzi. You select one because it's attractive, comfortable and seems a little like home.

Welcome to Kimberly Place.

Sure we've got the recreational facilities that make carefree apartment living fun and relaxing. Pools, sauna, gym, lighted tennis courts, social center and much, much more.

But we've kept your right to privacy in mind. Secluded balconies, private patios, for example, help you get away from it all.

Kimberly Place. Just because you live in an apartment doesn't mean you're not entitled to a little peace and quiet.
