

WILLIAM COMPTON FOR DISTRICT JUDGE

JUDGE WILLIAM

Former Judge William P. Compton, a Clark County resident since 1946, has filed for election to Department of the Eighth Judicial District Court in Las Vegas.

Judge Compton did undergraduate work at the University of Pittsburgh and the University of Pennsylvania and received his Juris Doctor degree in Law at the University of Virginia. Finishing at the top of his law class, he served as an editor of the Law Review while in law school at Virginia.

Upon graduation he was invited to serve as law clerk to the Hon. Armistead M. Dobie, then a member of the Fourth United States Court of Appeals, whose jurisdiction covered Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, and North and South Carolina. He served as clerk to the Judge for two years.

A member of the Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States, the Judge was admitted to the Bar in Virginia in 1943 and the Nevada State Bar in 1947; he practiced in Las Vegas until January, 1950, when he was appointed Assistant United States Attorney for Nevada. He served four years and then returned to private practice. Since then he served as a member of the Board of Bar examiners for five years and for approximately one and one-half years was City Attorney of Henderson, Nevada.

Elected to the bench in 1960 to complete the term of the late Judge A.S. Henderson, he was re-elected in 1962, and each four years thereafter until 1975.

He served as Juvenile Judge in 1961 and from 1962 to 1969. During his tenure the new Juvenile Home and Child Haven was built on East Bonanza, and the Judge guided much of the development at Spring Mountain Youth Camp. During his regime, the first full-time psychologist was added to the staff of the juvenile services. Judge Compton participated in the establishment of the first Juvenile Traffic Court in Las Vegas. He also established the first Truancy Court in Las Vegas which drastically reduced the number of truancy repeaters in the Clark County Schools.

The Judge was invited to and participated in the National Conference on "Judicial Concern for Children" sponsored by the National P.T.A. and the National Juvenile Court Foundation held in both San Francisco and Chicago.

He was formerly Chief Judge of the Eighth Judicial District Court, and formerly advisory Judge to the Clark County Grand Jury.

As a long time member of the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges, he was successful in obtaining for Las Vegas the first and only Juvenile Judges Conference ever held here. This was in 1969. That same year Judge Compton was presented a plaque by the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges "in recognition of his distinguished service to children and youth."

A past president of the Clark County Bar Association, he was also a member of the Nevada Council on Crime and Delinquency and a past member of the Governor's Committee, White House Conference on Children and Youth.

He is a member of Christ Church Episcopal in Las Vegas and a member of many Masonic groups in the State.

LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE
SAM CAVNAR FOR U.S. SENATOR

Sam Cavnar, Republican candidate for U.S. Senator, spoke before a group of Henderson Republicans over the week-end and lashed out at Senator Howard Cannon's re-election campaign double-talk. The following statements are excerpts from that talk.

"I'm tired of hearing Cannon tout his 'seniority,'" Cavnar said. "We don't need any more of his brand of 'seniority', a seniority that in eighteen years has seen deals and questionable activities with Gulf Oil, the airlines, and the partisan Democratic Party machinery along with jumping back and forth between Big Labor and Big Business. This has been designed to perpetuate Howard Cannon in office. Up to now, it's worked like a charm."

"Cannon cannot continue to serve two masters," Cavnar contended. "With an incredibly arrogant attitude (no doubt fostered from playing 'King of the Hill' for eighteen years) as clearly shown in the case of his last minute switch on the important common-situs picketing bill, he will sell out Labor at the last minute and then fully expect them to support him — all while holding his hand out behind his back for money from the Big Business special interests like Gulf Oil, the airlines and aircraft manufacturers."

"It really amazes me," Cavnar added, "to hear Cannon talk about fiscal responsibility and his plans to help cut federal spending when his voting record proves that he has continually voted for spending more and more tax dollars by consistently supporting nearly 1,000 'give-away' welfare and social program bills since his coming to office. This is public record."

re-election we hear the same fiscal responsibility double-talk. But after eighteen years in the Senate, one would think that he should have come to realize by now the great burden that such irresponsible federal spending puts on our nation's economy and thus on every American.

Federal borrowing for deficit spending not only takes money away from each and every one of us in taxes, but it also takes money away from the private enterprise sector in order to fund these massive, wasteful federal programs. This only creates more unemployment, more inflation, and a greater tax burden on us all.

This irresponsibility, of which Cannon has had a big hand in manufacturing over the years, hurts everyone. Most of all, it hurts those on fixed incomes and the retired. Let's face facts: the only way to halt this vicious cycle of inflation and unemployment is to cut off the very thing that continues to feed it — federal deficit spending.

If Cannon insists upon basing his campaign on fiscal responsibility, then he is deceiving the public and Nevada. He and his 'seniority' should have been at work cutting down this massive spending instead of just talking about it. Let's have action, not words," Cavnar concluded.

KAY HAWKINS FOR COMMISSION C

Kay Hawkins has filed for election to county commission seat "C."

Hawkins, a Republican, is 54 and resides at 3055 S. Bronco Street. She was a delegate to the county and state Republican conventions this year.

The candidate is president of the NVO Women's Club, vice-chairman of the Western Ranch Estates Owners' Association and a member of the Home of the Good Shepard Auxiliary.

Hawkins has had experience in accounting and in newspaper advertising.

She has served on the Museum Guild of Southern Nevada and the Las Vegas Republican Women's Club and is a member of the Episcopal Church.

A mother of three, she is married to Wallace Hawkins, a contractor with the U.S. Energy Research and Development Administration.

Hawkins feels that her greatest attribute for public service is the fact that she is totally unencumbered by any business or political connections in Clark County. For these reasons she can act in the best interests of the majority of the residents in all issues which would come before the County Commission.

Listing honesty in government as a priority, Hawkins stresses full representation for the small businessman and the homeowner in local government.

She feels her experience in community affairs qualifies her for the seat.

If elected, Hawkins promises she will face all issues which arise squarely and honestly and will do her utmost to find an effective and economical solution.

HUSSEIN ADMITS ARABS CANNOT COEXIST

NEW YORK (WUP) -- In a recent interview with a Senior editor of Newsweek, King Hussein was asked: "How do you think the Lebanese war effects the Arab-Israeli equation?"

The Jordanian ruler replied:

"In a disastrous way. The Palestine Liberation Organization has weakened, perhaps irreparably, its argument that Jews, Muslims and Christians could live in harmony side by side in a future greater Palestine. It can now be seen that Arabs themselves, citizens of the same country, not only cannot co-exist but collide day and night."
