LINDA HART FEATURED WITH RANDY SPARKS AT LANDMARK

Randy Sparks and The Back Porch Majority with featured comic Bobby Sargent, singer Linda Hart and banjoist Skip De Vol is being overwhelmingly well - received in the Landmark's Jubilee Showroom.

Sparks and his merry band of troubadours -- seven singers/musicians, two of which are female, present an offering of contemporary sounds (pop, rock & country) mixed with some of the memorable Sparks compositions such as "Green Green" and "Saturday Night," in the folk vein.

Haney, Mel Tillis, Freddy Fender, Barbara Fairchild, etc. Roy and comedy star Mel Tillis will be returning to the Vegas-scene in October, at the Frontier Hotel..... The annual Showfolks' Las Vegas BEAUX ARTS HALLOWE'EN BALL will be held this year, on October 31, at the Stardust Hotel starting at about midnight thru til dawn. As usual, there will be special awards for Best Costumes in several categories, special entertainment, and a panel of-celebrity judges. PEOPLE ARE STILL TALKING ABOUT.....the fantastically successful JERRY LEWIS LABOR DAY TELETHON FOR MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY, last week at the Sahara Space Center. Not only did the Telethon break all records for tv viewers, it also set some new ones for monies donated in a 21 hour span, and boasted the biggest turnout of stars in television's history. And among the many many highlights: the "moment" of reuniting JERRY LEWIS and his former partner DEAN MARTIN (with a push and an intro by none other than FRANK SINATRA).....the very very sad and untimely passing of the beloved FRENCHY ALLEN (Mrs. Marty Allen) in Los Angeles. Frenchy had thousands of friends around the world and Las Vegans who knew and loved her mourn and miss her..... the happy news that TOTIE FIELDS has, at long last, been released from her hospital in Hollywood, and will be able to "come home" to Las Vegas in the very near future.....

Linda Hart is vivacity, a well - cultured voice and flawless showmanship contained in a great body. She lifts the audience from their seats with her rockin' country tunes and wets their eyes with her sensitive delivery of a contemporary ballad.
