LAS VEGAS

ROUND TOWN.....AUDITIONS Sunday, September 19 for the upcoming "THE ORPHANS' REVENGE", an original musical MELODRAMA, opening at the Thunderbird Hotel on or about October 8. Written by SUZANNE BUHRER (who'll be flying in from Houston, Texas where she is starring with "Bottoms Up" to hold the casting call) and GENE CASEY (arriving from Los Angeles and a hiatus from his regular chores as director of the Mayfair Music Hall), "The Orphans' Revenge" will have afternoon only showtimes (2 p.m. and 4 p.m.). Auditions are at 11 a.m. at the Thunderbird; be prepared to SING..... The brilliant and exciting MOISEYEV RUSSIAN FESTIVAL, just closed at Caesars Palace, was the show not to be missed. The Caesars engagement was the last in the troupe's U.S. tour which started in June in New York as part of the Bicentennial celebrations. The cast of 175 singers and dancers return to the USSR this month but are already planning their 1977 American tour. Bravos to Palace entertainment director SID GATHRID for another very special "coup" and for making Las Vegas show history with the Moiseyev's premiere performance.....

PRESS PATROLS.....COURT HAY, the entertainment scribe for the National Enquirer weekly, in town for a quick visit round town and scooping up show biz tidbits for his weekly column..... RICHARD CUSKELLY & MARIA LAMAGRA the new West Coast editor and assistant editor of the McFadden Group of mags including PHOTOPLAY, MOTION PICTURE, etc. in town to catch some shows and plan some special features on and about Las Vegas and its ever changing galaxy of super-attractions..... TIM HAWKINS, associate editor of Photoplay's "friendly rival" publications the Laufer Company (who publish the Rona Barrett mags) in for a Vegas visit and lining up star interviews for future issues..... BILL & TICHIL WILKERSON MILES, the publishers of THE

LENA HORNE, VIC DAMONE SING FOR SRO AT DEL WEBB'S SAHARA

If enchanting music is your bag, then Lena Horne and Vic Damone are delightful treats to fill it.

The sensational vocalists, hailed by Sahara Entertainment Director Jack Eglash as two of show business' greatest singers today, opened a special one week engagement in Hotel Sahara's Congo Room. And what an opening it was.

"A wondrous pair of pros who sing their way dazzlingly through many old favorites and some new tunes."

"One of the biggest events of the season... opening night performance was a gem... capacity crowd gave them a much deserved standing ovation."

These are just a few of the many remarks made by first night-ers.

Most critics summed up the show by saying "Lena and Vic do indeed sing in the most rewarding concert ever featured at the Del Webb resort."

Lena, a legend in her time, hits the jackpot with every number but it's her "Stormy Weather" that always seems to gain the famed entertainer a standing ovation. And another of her longtime favorites, "Honey-suckle Rose," keeps a highly entertained audience on Cloud 9.

Damone scores with such all-time greats as "Feelings," "Alde-La" and "On The Street Where You Live."

The blockbuster engagement runs through next Wednesday with two shows nightly, 8 o'clock dinner and the midnight cocktail performance.
