

TERRORISTS CHICKEN OUT, RELEASE 83

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The 78 passengers and five crew members of a hijacked Dutch airliner were released unharmed in Cyprus by three Palestinian terrorists after they failed in an attempt to have the KLM DC-9 land in Israel and to get Israel to release seven imprisoned terrorists.

The terrorists agreed to release their hostages on the plane at Larnaca Airport in Cyprus after they were promised safe conduct out of the country. They were taken from the airport in a Libyan diplomatic car. The terrorists, who reportedly belonged to George Habash's Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine had earlier threatened to blow up the plane unless Israel released seven prisoners including Kozo Okamoto, the Japanese serving life imprisonment for his part in the 1973 Lod Airport massacre, and Greek Catholic Archbishop Hilarion Capucci, who was imprisoned for smuggling arms to terrorists.

Defense Minister Shimon Peres declared he was pleased with the way the affair had ended. He said Israel's policy has once again proved itself to be right. "One has to keep his nerves and not yield to terrorists and their demands even when they present ultimatum after ultimatum," he said.

The 20-hour ordeal began when the three terrorists hijacked the plane shortly after it left Nice on a flight from Malaga, Spain to Amsterdam.

Netherlands Premier Joop Den Uyl telephoned thanks to Foreign Minister Yigal Allon for Israel's cooperation in saving the lives of 75 passengers and five crew members held hostage aboard the hijacked airliner.

URGE U.S. TO RESIST PRESSURE ON ISRAEL

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The United States must "resist being stampeded into precipitous actions and pressures on Israel," Rabbi Joseph Sternstein, president of the Zionist Organization of America told the group's 79th annual convention.

He said the U.S. should show its independence in the Middle East by moving its embassy from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem and by walking out when the representative of Libya presides as president of the Security Council this month. He said Libya is "an internationally accused gangster, systematically and maniacally fomenting blood-thirsty terrorism." He said that since the United Nations has failed to act against terrorism, the U.S. should move against countries that aid terrorism.

Sternstein also denounced the idea of a Palestinian State and declared that American Jews are united in support of Israel. Prior to the convention Sternstein led a ceremony at the Isaiah Wall across from the United Nations against terrorism followed by another ceremony at the Statue of Liberty in which the ZOA paid tribute to the United States and American Zionists.
