"YORDIM" WHO LEFT ISRAEL, NO PROBLEM

NEW YORK (WUP) -- Yosef Almogi, the dynamic Israeli leader who heads the Jewish Agency for Israel as also the World Zionist Organization, has discounted any serious threat to the Jewish State of the large number of Israeli 'yordim' who have settled abroad.

Appearing at a press luncheon here last week, Mr. Almogi said that of the overall number of 300,000 'yordim' who have left Israel, some 200,000 have been away more than two years and among these a great many do not consider themselves 'yordim' since they still maintain links with Israel and plan to return at some future date. He noted that the Jewish Agency is planning to take positive steps in encouraging the return of 'yordim.'

The veteran Israeli made it a point to note that in the past 2,000 years there have always been 'yordim' and 'olim' and that it's not a new problem.

In referring to his recent visit to Brazil, Argentina and Uruguay, he paid high tribute to the 600,000 Jews residing in those countries. He said that the regimes in these three countries are free of any tinge of anti-Semitism or anti-Jewishness. However, a number of rabid anti-Semitic groups do function openly there, he stated. They publish pro-Nazi magazines and disseminate pro-Hitler literature creating problems for the flourishing Jewish communities.

Mr. Almogi, who had emigrated to the old Palestine in 1930 as a Kibbutznik and who played an active role in the Haganah thence continuing as one of the architects along with Ben-Gurion, Golda Meir and others in the upbuilding of the State in all its aspects, announced that at the forthcoming World Zionist Conference scheduled for January 17, 1977 in Jerusalem, he will present a four-year plan for action on a global scale.
