PEA-PICKER TENNESSEE ERNIE FORD AT DEL WEBB'S SAHARA

Tennessee Ernie Ford is back and Hotel Sahara guests love it.

The famed entertainer opened a special eight-night stand in the Del Webb resort's Congo Room and a capacity crowd left with only one protest.

"Ol' Ern doesn't make enough appearances at the Sahara. He should bring his spectacular show to the hotel several times a year," was the comment made by many first nighters.

Actually, seeing Tennessee Ernie on stage is a great treat. The famed nightclub, television and recording star now makes very few personal appearances each year. The Sahara is "home" for the loveable entertainer when he does play Las Vegas.

Ol' Ern thrills audiences with his outstanding bass voice, singing everything from opera to hymns, pop and rock 'n roll numbers. And Congo Room audiences all agree that he is one of the best story tellers in the entertainment field today.

The Capitol Records star hits the high point in his performance when he belts out his never to be forgotten "16 Tons," the disc that shattered all sales records back in 1955.

Country comic Glenn Ash is the perfect opening act with his great lines plus some outstanding guitar and banjo playing. It's impossible to watch Ash perform and not be struck by the thought that he looks like both the late Dan Blocker and Roy Clark. He has the same open, warm mannerisms of both and also the physical stature.

Since climbing to stardom as a comic, Glenn also has proven to be a fine actor, appearing on such TV shows as "Mayberry R.F.D.," "Gomer Pyle," "Petticoat Junction" and "The New Andy Griffith Show."

Completing the Congo Room entertainment lineup is a swinging group of young performers called Life. The young artists have come into their own during the past year playing state fairs, conventions and industrial trade shows across the country.

The special engagement is being featured twice nightly, 8 o'clock dinner and the midnight cocktail performance.
