"SALUTE TO COUNTRY MUSIC STARS PAT BUTTRAM AT LANDMARK"

"A Salute to Country Music" currently in the Landmark's Jubilee Showroom, headlining Sherry Bryce and The Plainsmen, spotlights special guest star Pat Buttram in the comedy slot.

Traveling the dusty trail with Gene Autry for over 15 years, Buttram became a western legend as the great cowboy's sidekick in over 60 motion pictures and 100 television episodes. More recently his perceptive interpretation of the con-artist "Mr. Haney" on the "Green Acres" television series, made the character both humorous and loveable rather than loathsome. The program was so well-received that it is presently being re-run locally and throughout the country. Buttram is called upon time and time again to display his prowess as after-dinner speaker and host for testimonials, award dinners, conventions and industrial shows. He presently has a column in syndication, "Pat Buttram Sez" an assemblage of original and thought-provoking comments on current events. Sherry Bryce, who first became known for her duo releases with Mel Tillis -- "Mr. Right and Mrs. Wrong," "You Are The One" and "Don't Let Go," also recalls some of her own hit singles during the musical jubilee such as "Pretty Lies" and her latest "Everything's Coming Up Love." Highlight of her performance is a tribute to some of the legendary figures from the country music scene. Making his 15th appearance in the country music series is Las Vegas' favorite banjoist and now a resident also -- Skip De Vol.
