

"AMERICAN JEWRY IN DANGER"

NEW YORK (WUP) -- Dore Schary, the playwright - producer and the honorary national chairman of the ADL of B'nai B'rith, has warned that anti-Semitism is on the rise in the United States.

Speaking at a reception at the ADL headquarters here last week in honor of former Ambassador Yosef Tekoah marking the appearance of the latter's book, "In the Face of Nations," Mr. Schary cited the latest Spiro Agnew anti-Semitic outburst in a TV interview with Barbara Walters on the NBC network. Terming Agnew "a monster" he described the whole show as "outrageous."

Schary revealed that some 30% of Americans "are hostile to Jews. We are in a flash-point in history," he warned. "American Jewry is in danger." Agnew's anti-Zionist remark was prompted by Miss Walters query: "You have characters in the book talk repeatedly of the Jewish cabal, of the Jewish Zionist Lobby having too much strength, too much influence in Congress. Is this how you see it?"

"I do feel that the Zionist influences in the U.S. are dragging the U.S. into a rather disorganized approach to the Middle East problem," Agnew retorted. "I feel for example that we don't have an evenhanded policy in the Middle East. There's no doubt that there has been a certain amount of Israeli imperialism taking place in the world..."
