JUBILEE ROOM AT LANDMARK SWINGS WITH "KING OF WESTERN SWING"

Hank Thompson, country recording artist and performer who over the past 30 years has consistently turned out one chart-ringing hit after another (100 with two dozen to score in the top 10) currently graces the Landmark's Jubilee Showroom with his band The Brazos Valley boys; Johnny Matson and Denise Burress.

Lanky Hank, singer, bandleader, songwriter, music publisher and astute businessman, is always included on the list of leaders in country music. Not only has he written the majority of his hits, he has had the confidence and foresight to record albums containing the tunes of other great artists from other music forms such as "Cab Driver, Salute to The Mills Brothers" and "Hank Thompson Sings the Hits of Nat King Cole." Having over the last few years expanded his musical horizons to include more than western swing, encompassing the sounds of the more progressive country, and achieving such success with that bag.

HANK

Blowing on a trumpet while simultaneously smoking two cigars and playing an accordion is an astonishing feat performed by musical clown Johnny Matson, but is only one of his comedic accomplishments.

Denise Burress' musical versatility ranges from rock to country to soul. She has performed with such rock groups as Dr. Hook and the Medicine Show.

The Hank Thompson Show is in the Jubilee Showroom through November 14.
