

OF THE STARS

TONY BENNETT, JOEY HEATHERTON IN SAHARA CONGO ROOM

Audiences streaming out of the Sahara Hotel's Congo Room these nights have a marvelous glow on their faces. They have just experienced a rare and exhilarating performance by two of the finest entertainers in the business... Tony Bennett and Joey Heather-ton.

Bennett, a consummate artist, has been on the entertainment scene since shortly after World War II, learning his craft as a production singer in a Greenwich Village revue, in small clubs and theaters around the country, and finally scoring his initial success in the recording studios.

A remarkable string of hit records quickly led him to his exalted position as one of the finest singers ever to grace a nightclub stage, and he has been a Las Vegas superstar for many years. Congo Room patrons were not disappointed as Tony reprised the selections which have become identified with him through the years. The haunting quality of his voice, his tender treatment of the lyrics, his obvious delight with the backing of the magnificent Jack Eglash orchestra, all contributed to a memorable performance. His repertoire included selections by the top contemporary composers, which pleased his audience, but the greatest response was registered when he slipped into his evergreens... "The Lady Is A Tramp," "As Time Goes By," "Just In Time," "Life Is Beautiful," "For Once In My Life," "S Wonderful," "O Sole Mio" ...and the arrangement that never fails to bring down the house...his classic rendition of "I Left My Heart In San Francisco" segued with "I Wanna Be Around."

Joey Heather-ton proved once again that a strong opening is a key factor in the success of any presentation. Her remarkable versatility, combined with her dazzling beauty, quickly brought the audience to a peak which she was able to maintain throughout her entire performance, leaving them primed for the entrance of Mr. Bennett.
