

Golden Anniversary

Sadie and David Penn, Las Vegas residents, celebrated their 50th golden wedding anniversary at Temple Beth Sholom.

They were married in Detroit, Mich. on August 1, 1926. For 30 years they lived in Toledo, Ohio. After World War II they moved to Los Angeles.

In Southern California the couple were active in many charitable organizations, David with the A.Z.A. as youth advisor for 19 administrations.

After 20 years in Los Angeles, the Penns moved to Las Vegas. They became active in local organizations such as B'nai B'rith and its bowling league, the Temple Beth Sholom and the Beth Sholom Seniors.

The couple resides at 208 Orland St.

drain of appeasement, as the Western democracies once asked of Czechoslovakia. This does not seem to me a useful line of thought to propose to an incoming American President."

U.S. SENATOR ATTACKS AMERICAN NEWS MEDIA

WASH. (WNS) -- The Washington office of Sen. James Abourezk (D. SD) has acknowledged that he spoke in an "unofficial capacity" at the anti-Zionist conference in Baghdad which ended November 12.

Abourezk, a member of the Senate Judiciary subcommittee on refugees is visiting four Arab states on official business. Abourezk was reported to have attacked American media coverage of the Middle East as biased in favor of Israel at the conference sponsored by the University of Baghdad, the Palestine Liberation Organization and the Arab League in cooperation with the government of Iraq.

Meanwhile, three U.S. Senators reportedly met with a PLO representative in Cairo. The Senators were identified in reports from Cairo as Robert Griffin (R. Mich.), John Glenn (D. Ohio) and Paul Laxalt (R. Nev.).

ISRAELITE ADS PAY

FALSE PREMISE IN N.Y. TIMES

NEW YORK (WUP) -- In rebuttal to a Times Op-Ed page article by author Edward Sheehan who stated, among other things, that "Arab Governments remain ready to negotiate with Israel, and to accept its legitimacy, in return for their territory" the noted writer Barbara Tuchman had termed Sheehan's contention "as being based on a false premise at its core."

Miss Tuchman, in her reply published in the Times last week, declared that she "knows of no evidence to support this alleged readiness or to justify the word 'remain.' The Arab Governments have never proposed to accept Israel's legitimacy in the only way that counts: by de jure recognition.

"To suggest that Israel give back territory before, or without receiving such recognition," she added, "is to suggest that it go down the
