

MENTAL HEALTH DOCUMENTARY ON TV 3
DEC. 14

Kathie Milone, Director of Community Relations, KORK-TV 3, recently produced a documentary in conjunction with the Las Vegas Mental Health Center to be aired December 14, at 8 p.m. "The Long Road Back" is based on a true case history of a young woman plagued with problems of alcoholism and depression. The film traces the woman's course of treatment at the Las Vegas Mental Health Center and finally her successful re-entry into the community. The young woman's fight to regain sobriety and emotional stability with the aid of the personnel of the Las Vegas Mental Health Center is a gripping drama. Don't miss "The Long Road Back," TV 3, December 14 at 9 p.m.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Vladimir Lazaris and Emma Sotnikova, editors of the "unofficial" periodical, "Jews in the USSR" have been threatened with criminal proceedings by Soviet authorities, according to the National Conference on Soviet Jewry.

EGYPT THREATENS ANOTHER WAR

NEW YORK (WUP) -- "Israel should choose without delay between (an Arab) peace based on justice or a new war launched by the Arabs to regain their occupied territories."

This threat was made by Egyptian Foreign Minister Ismail Fahmy, to an AP

The dispatch, which cited Mr. Fahmy as urging a reconvening of the Geneva Conference early in 1977, noted that Sadat's right hand man had told his interviewer that "Israel should agree either to become a secular state where Palestinians and Jews lived together under one flag (?) or it should agree to (PLO) state."

List of Superlatives
By Rabbi Samuel Silver

In Akron, Ohio, Dr. Marvin Koller has compiled an interesting list of superlatives. I was so enchanted by it when I saw it in the bulletin of Temple Israel (where the rabbi is Dr. Morton Applebaum) that I thought I would share some of it with you. Here goes:

Greatest sin: fear.
Best day: today.
Biggest fool: the one who won't go to school.
Most agreeable companion: one who would not have you any different than you are.
Best town: where you succeed.
Bore: one who won't come to the point.
Greatest bore: one who keeps talking after the point is made.
Greatest invention of the devil: war.
The best play: work.
Greatest mistake: giving up.
Most expensive indulgence: hate.
Cheapest, stupidest and easiest thing to do: finding fault.
Greatest obstacle: egotism.
Worst bankrupt: one who lost enthusiasm.
Most disagreeable person: the complainer.
The best teacher: one who makes you want to learn.
Meanest feeling: chagrin over someone else's success.
Greatest thought: God.
Greatest thing, bar none: love.
You've made me feel better, doctor!
