BE A PROUD ZIONIST

Thanks, Mr. Stroum

By Rabbi Samuel Silver

You are indebted to Samuel Stroum of Seattle, Washington.

Mr. Stroum is one of those admirable philanthropists who believes in meaningful giving. So he gave a 6 - figure sum for the establishment of a Jewish Lectureship series at the University of Washington.

One spinoff of that largesse is a remarkable record album of sixteen songs from the Yiddish by such poets as Avrom Reisin, I.L. Peretz, G. Gladstein, M. Ravich and other lyrical giants.

On the Album, available at the University of Washington or through the Jewish Federation of Greater Seattle, you will hear the basso voice of Leon Lishner, head of the vocal department of the U. of Washington.

At the piano is the foremost composer of Yiddish songs today, the great Lazar Weiner who set many of these poems to music for the first time. And what music! Soul - lifting, and saturated with authentic Jewish cadences, for Mr. Weiner, a gifted and knowledgeable musician, knows his Jewish roots thoroughly.

Another enterprise in which Mr. Weiner is involved is a series of programs commemorating the Holocaust being offered in April at the 92nd St. Y. and involving dancers, singers and musicalized versions of poems written by young people in concentration camps and published as "I Never Saw Another Butterfly." These poems have been set to music by another talented artist, Srul Irving Glick, who programs music for the Canadian Broadcasting Corp.

Yes, we owe a thank - you to Mr. and Mrs. Stroum of Seattle, to the creative Lazar Weiner, and their associates.

Their heart - warming achievements offset some of the bad news we read about in the world. In a world pockmarked with horror and terror they give us holiness and tenderness. Bless 'em!
