

AMERICAN-ISRAELI DIALOGUE DISCUSSES RIGHTS

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The rights of the individual under American, Israel and halachic law was discussed at the 13th annual American - Israel Dialogue, sponsored by the American Jewish Congress.

"While complete separation of State and synagogue would deny the very basis of the Jewish State, it is equally true that any fusion of religious and civil authority would mutilate Israel's modern character," it was stressed by Rabbi Arthur Hertzberg, president of the AJCongress. The Englewood, N. J. Conservative rabbi said that "In Israel what the law must seek is a balance between the obligatory character of halacha and the libertarian nature of the modern state."

But Rabbi Aharon Lichtenstein, an Orthodox rabbi and Talmudic scholar, said "the very formulation of the dialogue is non-halachic, perhaps even anti-halachic in character." He said that "rights, natural or other, are the legacy of Locke, John Stuart Mill and Martin Luther King Jr. They are not the 'lingua franca' of the Torah, the Talmud."

PLO RICHEST TERRORISTS IN HISTORY

NEW YORK (WNS) The Palestine Liberation Organization has built up an investment portfolio amounting "to an estimated $60-100 million" which includes shares in "blue chip American companies that have operations in the Middle East," according to the latest issue of Time magazine.

Time called the PLO "probably the richest, best financed revolutionary-terrorist organization in history" with holdings that also include two Beirut hotels, shares in shipyards and oil tankers and a youth hostel being built in Cairo. "Some of this money has even been used for the quiet purchase of land on the West Bank"

Still the most meaningful program in town...
