EL AL SERVICE FROM TEL AVIV TO LISBON

NEW YORK -- El Al Israel Airlines has announced the opening of weekly 707 service from Tel Aviv to Lisbon, Portugal via Marseilles on September 4th.

The early morning flight from Ben Gurion International Airport to Lisbon will return the same day.

An El Al spokesman indicated that Lisbon would serve as the gateway for El Al's future service to South America.

"Service to Portugal will add one of the most popular and inexpensive European destinations to El Al's network and will also provide opportunities for expanded pilgrimage traffic," according to Y. Shrem, Senior V.P. Commercial of the national flag carrier of Israel. It will also add a colorful incentive to package tours offered by El Al to its individual and group clients.

KISSINGER MEETS BEGIN

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Former Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger said he was hopeful that Premier Menachem Begin's peace proposals could result in a peace agreement and that the Geneva conference would reconvene this year.

"These talks should be given a chance," he said after meeting for more than an hour with Begin, at the Premier's request. Kissinger, who met with Begin shortly before the Israeli leader left for Israel after spending nine days in the United States, said the Geneva conference "alone can bring peace."

A spokesman for the Premier disclosed later that Begin had also telephoned former President Ford and invited him to visit Israel. Ford reportedly accepted and said he would arrange a date. Begin also held a one-hour private meeting July 23 with former Vice President Nelson Rockefeller and had a similar meeting July 22 with David Rockefeller, chairman of the Chase Manhattan Bank.
