JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The proposal by Secretary of State Cyrus Vance and Egyptian President Anwar Sadat to hold a meeting of Israeli and Arab foreign ministers in the United States this fall to prepare for a Geneva Conference was welcomed by Premier Menachem Begin August 3.

The proposal was unveiled by Sadat August 2 after two days of talks with Vance. The U.S. Secretary, who appeared in a press conference in Alexandria, Egypt, with Sadat, said he would try to persuade Syria, Jordan and Israel to join Egypt in a working group that would meet under U.S. auspices in Washington and New York in September.

Begin described the idea as "very constructive" in a interview on Israel Radio. He said he had proposed the same idea during his trip to Washington but would not criticize Sadat for claiming credit.

Noting that Sadat's proposal means that Egyptian Foreign Minister Ismail Faymy and Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan would be sitting at the same table, Begin said, "This is something to welcome." The major stumbling block to acceptance of the idea is Syria where President Hafez Assad has declared that he would not support any plan that excludes the Palestine Liberation Organization.

Vance was in Syria August 4 in an attempt to persuade Assad. In Washington, former Secretary of State Henry Kissinger told a reporter that the working group is the best way to prepare the ground for a Geneva Conference. "I recommended a working group at the United Nations in September of 1975," he asserted. But he said he was "not in favor" of including the PLO in the talks.

Lamb Slaughters IRS

SHERIFF RALPH

For the second time within a year the Internal Revenue Service thought they had a sheep in wolf's clothing but found they had a Lamb as white as snow.

Sheriff Ralph Lamb was acquitted of all charges of tax evasion in a case the I.R.S. knew it was going to lose from the very start, because "dirty tricks" it attempted, backfired. A similar case against his brother, senior State Senator Floyd Lamb, was also thrown out months ago.

Now it can be told. The extent the I.R.S. went to, to throw the book at Sheriff Lamb, who the agency lawyers knew firmly and convincingly should never have been indicted in the first place. It spent years and countless thousands attempting to get the goods on Ralph. Even when it knew down deep it did not have anything conclusive to support a conviction, the I.R.S.
