Thus, Egypt has taken the lead in proposing preliminary talks in New York and Washington at which the Foreign Ministers of the three confrontation states will meet with the Foreign Minister of Israel, Moshe Dayan, at one table as a "working group" to discuss both procedural and substantive issues in advance of a full-scale Geneva Conference.

It is still not known what position the Soviet Union will take on such preliminary talks in the U.S. Mr. Vance is planning to raise the matter with Foreign Minister Gromyko when he meets with him in Vienna next month.

What is significant about these talks, should they come about, is the fact that for the first time the Foreign Ministers of the three confrontation states will meet face to face at one table with Israel's Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan -- The Jewish State's most outstanding expert on Arab affairs who speaks Arabic fluently and who understands Arab psychology perhaps better than any other Israeli official.

While Israel has indicated acceptance of the Sadat proposal for preliminary talks as a prelude to Geneva, observers here at the UN question whether Syria and the USSR will hasten to agree to such a procedure.

RUSSIA'S KREMLIN OPENLY ANTI-SEMITIC

NEW YORK (WNS). -- The Soviet Union, in releasing a study on Jewish influence in the United States, is aping the anti-Semitic czarist secret police, the B'nai B'rith Anti-Defamation league charged here.

The ADL compared the study, "International Zionism: History and Policy," published this year in the USSR to the infamous "The Protocols of the Elders of Zion" and said it "is equally fraudulent and malevolent." In a report on the study by TASS recently, it claimed that "Jewish capital and influence" in the United States would prevent a change in American policy toward Israel and that "Jewish capital and influence" in the United States would prevent a change in American policy toward Israel and that "Jewish capital plays a prominent role in the sphere of banking, trade and industry." Seymour D. Reich, chairman of the ADL's fact-finding committee, said "what distinguishes this new calumny from previous Soviet works of the genre is the free use of the word 'Jew' rather than 'Zionism' in both the publication and a commentary by the official TASS news agency." He said this makes it obvious that the "Kremlin authorities have now dropped all pretenses and are adopting openly and flagrantly in a widespread propaganda campaign the anti-Semitism line that Jews control the United States." Reich charged that "it is obvious that the Kremlin is now the headquarters of modern anti-Semitism."

Questions

By Rabbi Samuel Silver

Isaiah Kenen is one of the most charming and knowledgeable men you could ever meet. Longtime director of the Near East Report and one time Cleveland journalist, Mr. Kenen is now editor emeritus of the Near East Report and is still doing what he's done for decades: illuminating the Mideast situation.

In a statement which has appeared in many papers, Mr. Kenen arms us with some questions that we might ask of the Arab spokesmen. Here are some:

What Arab countries permit Jews to live inside their territories, and how many let their Jews emigrate? Isn't this a "human rights" situation?

How many Jews were killed by Arab terrorists in Jaffa in 1921... in the Arab riots between 1936 and 1939? What Arab nations have protested the murderous attacks on innocent people in Israel?

How many Arab refugees have been resettled and given citizenship in Iraq, Syria, Libya, Saudi Arabia, etc.?

How much have Arab nations contributed towards the relief of the Palestinians?

How can anyone speak of a Palestinian state after seeing what the Palestinians did to Lebanon?

Good questions, no?
