

CONTROVERSY OVER COMBINING JEWISH HOLIDAYS

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Premier Menachem Begin has suggested to the Knesset that Holocaust Remembrance Day, now observed shortly after Passover, should be incorporated into the Tisha B'Av mourning period.

He noted that Tisha B'Av has traditionally been the day on which the Jewish people marked other major tragedies in their history in addition to the anniversary of the destruction of the Second Temple.

confuse two tragedies in Jewish histories. Hausner, chairman of the Yad Vashem Memorial Authority, said Begin's proposal would lead to the disappearance of the remembrance of both the Holocaust and the heroism of the ghetto fighters and partisans. Hausner noted that Tisha B'Av fell in the summer during the school recess when there would be no opportunity to have school children participate in Holocaust memorials.

Begin replied that the incorporation of the two remembrance days would emphasize the destruction of the Jewish people both in ancient and modern times. He reported that both Israel's Chief Rabbis, Shlomo Goren and Ovadia Yosef, as well as Rabbi Joseph Soloveitchik of New York approved of the idea.
