The Rabbinical Couple

By Rabbi Samuel Silver

You've heard of the odd couple? What about the "God" couple? I refer to the Rabbis Sasso. He and she, a married pair, are both rabbis. They (Dennis and Sandy) were ordained at the Seminary conducted in Philadelphia by the Reconstructionist Movement, founded by the formidable Dr. Mordechai Kaplan, who in his high nineties, is still active in Israel.

The Sassos were called to serve a Conservative synagogue called Beth - El Zedek in Indianapolis.

That congregation must be listed as the boldest in America for having embarked on this historic venture.

Of course, we have a number of female rabbis now. So many that they have their own association called The Women's Rabbinical Alliance.

Both gifted speakers and authors, Rabbi Dennis Sasso is a native of Panama, his wife, Sandy, is from Philadelphia, where she was a protegee of Rabbi Bertram Korn, the great historian.

There are so many female seminarians that I predict ten years from now, a youngster will say, "Look, Mom, a Man Rabbi!"

Hail to the Godly Couple." Hail, Cong. Beth - El Zedek!

HAVE YOU EVER ACTUALLY SEEN A SECOND?

The Seiko Quartz gives you accuracy you can see because the second hand moves in precise one-second intervals. Conventional watches with sweep-second hands simply can't show the movement of time as accurately. Quartz watches are at least four times more accurate than any other type of wristwatch. The Seiko Quartz is accurate not just within seconds per day or per week, but within seconds per month. Shown: Seiko Quartz No. CM002M—$225. Other Seiko Quartz models are priced from $150 to $575.
