ISRAEL DETERMINED AT-LEBANON BORDER

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Defense Minister Ezer Weizman warned U.S. Charge d'Affairs Richard White that Israel will not remain idle if its populated areas continue to come under bombardment from Palestinian terrorists in southern Lebanon. Safad was hit by Katyusha rockets on September 24 and that upper Galilee town and the border town of Kiryat Shemona had suffered rocket attacks on several previous days. Two people were wounded in Safad and five in Kiryat Shemona. The mayors and town councils of the two towns sent an urgent appeal to Premier Menachem Begin and Weizman to take immediate action to check the attacks on them. Israel meanwhile was under increasing United States pressure to withdraw from positions it has taken in southern Lebanon.

The American embassies in Beirut and Damascus as well as Tel Aviv are working around the clock in an effort to reverse the rapidly deteriorating situation in southern Lebanon where the Palestinian terrorists continue to battle Christian villagers. Israel is prepared to pull out but insists on a general ceasefire there and guarantees that terrorists will not occupy the evacuated positions and massacre the Christian population.

An Israeli officer, Lt. Yehuda Bonfield, 20, of Lod, was killed and three other Israeli soldiers were wounded when their patrol encountered a terrorist group near Har Dov on the northern slopes of Mt. Herman. The terrorists withdrew after an exchange of fire and later launched rocket attacks on Safad and Kiryat Shemona. Israeli artillery laid down a fierce barrage aimed at the terrorist positions.

A detailed Israeli proposal for a ceasefire has been forwarded to Syria and Lebanon through the U.S. The Israeli plan calls for the Syrians to remain in their present positions north of the Litani River and for the Palestinians and Lebanese Christian units to remain in their positions. Israeli troops would remain on their side of the border. Israeli artillery, however, has been helping the Christians.

Meanwhile in an interview in Washington on CBS-TV's "Face the Nation," Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan said that while some Israeli patrols may be going in and out of southern Lebanon there were no "permanent Israeli positions there." He stressed that Israel will continue to supply artillery support and arms to Lebanese Christians. He noted that Israel wanted to end its involvement in southern Lebanon "if there would be peaceful Lebanese forces taking over. What we don't want is to throw to the dogs the Christians there." He said if the Israelis deserted the Lebanese Christians, "the Christians would be
