TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Premier Menachem Begin, who was admitted to the hospital September 30, was expected to be released October 10. The Premier is suffering from pericarditis, an inflammation of the membranes surrounding the heart.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Soviet authorities are preventing Moscow Jewish activists from participating, while the Supreme Soviet is meeting, in demonstrations protesting the refusal to give them emigration visas to Israel, according to reports reaching here.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The first group of 30 Gush Emunim members established themselves at an army camp on the Nablus - Tulkarem road in Samaria October 2.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Arson is suspected in a fire that destroyed the Cargal Factory in Lod, Israel's largest manufacturer of cardboard. The fire caused damages estimated at tens of millions of dollars, the largest fire loss in Israel's history.

BUENOS AIRES (WNS) -- There has been an improvement in the morale of Israelis since the new government of Premier Menachem Begin took office, Leon Dulzin, treasurer of the Jewish Agency and World Zionist Organization told a press conference here.

BONN (WNS) -- The West German Defense Ministry has suspended from duty 10 young army officers who took part in a symbolic burning of Jews and sang Nazi songs at a drinking party last February at a Munich military college.

MONTREAL (WNS) -- The International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO) voted 70-3 October 3 to give the Palestine Liberation Organization observer status. Only the United States, Israel and South Africa voted against the step.

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- Without a solution to the Palestinian problem there will be no peace in Lebanon, Lebanese Foreign Minister Fouad Boutros warned October 3. He also told the General Assembly that the unstable situation in southern Lebanon threatens the entire Middle East and probably the world.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Rabbi Menachem Schneerson, the Rebbe of the Lubavitcher movement, is recovering in his home in the Crown Heights section of Brooklyn from a heart attack he apparently suffered on the eve of Shmini Atzeret October 3.

RIO DE JANEIRO (WNS) -- A synagogue to serve the nearly 100 Jewish families in Brasilia, Brazil's capital, was officially dedicated. The synagogue which cost $200,000 took eight years to build and contains a community center. It is on land donated by the city.

DETROIT (WNS) -- Heidi Brancheau, a Maronite Christian Arab living in the Detroit area, has contributed $5000 to the University of Haifa, in appreciation for the help Israel has given her relatives in the Lebanese - Israeli border region. Mrs. Brancheau said her mother is alive because of medical care she is receiving from the Israelis.

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- Appearing as the first speaker after President Carter's speech here last week, the Iraqi Foreign Minister Saadoun Hammadi delivered a vituperative address in which he called for the expulsion of Israel from the world organization.

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- Prince Saud Al-Faisal of Saudi Arabia, in addressing the General Assembly last week, warned that unless the World Organization forces Israel to abide by all the pro - Arab resolutions it has adopted, the Arabs will launch another war.
