DEAN MARTIN BACK AT MGM GRAND

Dean Martin, the all-time showcount leader in the posh Celebrity Room of the MGM Grand Hotel, returns to the giant resort complex for another exciting one-week special engagement. Embellishing Ol' Red Eyes' performance will be the beautiful and talented Goldiggers.

The Martin magic permeates the Grand each and every time he comes in, whether it be for an on-stage Celebrity Room gig or to tape one of his famous Celebrity Roasts. The last two Roasts, of Dan Haggerty and Betty White, were held in the Grand's Ziegfeld Room in September before an SRO audience each time. They will be televised nationally at a later date.

Dino's cool, calm sleepy-eyed sophistication has won the hearts of millions of women and the admiration of millions of men since "That's Amore" launched his singing career back in the '50s. And his popularity continues to soar through TV, records, motion pictures and live engagements.

Dean Martin and the Goldiggers will be appearing at the Grand twice nightly through November 2. Anthony Newley will be headlining in the Celebrity Room for two weeks beginning November 3.

"NOSTALGIA OF BROADWAY" FREE AT U.P. NOV. 28

Joe Behar's Community Drama Workshop will be presenting their annual musical "Nostalgia of Broadway," Monday night, November 28th at 8:00 P.M. The community is invited and it's free.

Thanks to Maynard Sloate, "Nostalgia of Broadway" will be held in the main showroom of the Union Plaza Hotel.

Rich Newman is the director of the show; Marjorie Clifton, musical director; Kevin Ruud, Stage Manager, Genie Makinster, Public Relations; and Joe Behar, producer.

There's still time to try out for the show. If interested, call Behar at 647-1304.

"CDW" will continue to meet every Wednesday night at the All Saints Episcopal Church (except October 26th when it will be held at the Jockey Club). Remember it's free. It is held from 7:00 - 9:00 p.m.
