

ENTERTAINMENT TRIP AROUND THE WORLD

DICK MCINNES

Poor Cinderella! She's in trouble again. Seems like only yesterday that LESLEY ANN WARREN was a sweet, innocent Cinderella. Then she grew up to be a high class hooker in "70 Park Avenue" and now she's suing her psychiatrist for using sex in the guise of therapy in her newest film for EMI-TV called, appropriately, "Betrayed." RIP TORN plays her quasi-Prince Charming in doctor's clothing... DOROTHY TRISTAN has been turning down all acting offers since she wrapped JOHN HANCOCK's "California Dreaming" so she can concentrate on finishing her first novel, "Confessions of a Persian Lamb." Even SUSANN HABER, KRANTZ, et. al. would blush at this one. It's all about girls who get Persian lamb coats the way Persian lambs get them....

LASSIE had a busy week, she worked like a dog in New York rehearsing to dance with the Rockettes at the famed Radio City Music Hall for the opening of "The Magic of Lassie." In the afternoons, she had interviews and pictures done to publicize the film. But not to worry, animal lovers, she went home at night to her suite at the Plaza Hotel to relax. To keep the hamster and the actors happy, not to mention safe from sunstroke.

Director HAL ASHBY has scheduled night shooting in El Paso (100 in the shade) for the ROBERT BLAKE starrer...you'll soon be able to wear your favorite song. A company called Sandpiper of Boulder, Colorado, is coming out with T-shirts with the lyrics to songs by composers like GORDON LIGHTFOOT, CAROLE KING and PAUL WILLIAMS....hasn't NATALIE COLE been advised to Berlitz it to learn to parlez Francais so she can say "oui" to a forthcoming offer to make her film debut in "The Josephine Baker Story"???

Nobody seems to like "Convoy" but the public. Despite so - so reviews, the ALI MAC GRAW/KRIS KRISTOFFERSON starrer is piling up heavy grosses everywhere. The Japanese have a special yen for the film with $7 million coming from Lotus - land. Down south, the audiences cheer the hero (Kris) and soundly boo the villain (ERNIE BORGNINE) and have a ball. This makes United Artists, EMI and SAM PECKINPAH extremely happy....

HUGH HEFNER gave his mansion to the Thelma President's Club for a wingding of a party and even footed the bill for the food which was absolutely fabulous. The theme was the thirties and everyone came dressed accordingly. Among the guests RITA HAYWORTH (looking terrific), VIVIAN BLAINE, MARLO THOMAS & PHIL DONOHUE, JOYCE JILLSON & JOE GALLAGHER, CAROL CONNORS ("ROCKY" composer) & JOSH TAYLOR ("Days of Our Lives" heart-throb), ZSA ZSA GABOR, LUCILLE BENSON, MARIA LA MAGRA and RUTA LEE. A singing telegram from National Onion arrived to thank the most generous host Hefner. One of the best parties this year...

One of the best movies this year is "Foul Play" with GOLDIE HAWN again making you fall in love with her all over again and CHEVY CHASE making a most impressive debut. Solid support by BURGESS MEREDITH, BILLY BARTY, MARILYN SOKOL, DUDLEY MOORE and the City of San Francisco plus the fine writing of COLIN HIGGINS ("Harold and Maude") who also directed make this one of the films to see this summer....

"Who'll Stop the Rain" with NICK NOLTE, TUESDAY WELD, and MICHAEL MORIARTY is the one to miss. Despite fine performances, the movie is a mess. Talk about unredeeming qualities in characters! I've been told that the book is good (Dog Soldiers) so maybe you'd better buy the book.

A good idea, read a good book this week.

JACQUELINE OPENS TEL AVIV MUSEUM DROPOUT

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis was the star attraction at the opening of the $5.9 million Museum of the Diaspora at Tel Aviv University.

The four-story structure was financed by American Jewish organizations and is built around computers which contain information on thousands of years of Jewish history. This information is flashed on screens in the form of printed text, still photographs, and motion pictures, when someone pushes a button. The computers also deliver scholarly lectures on whatever subject is selected.

Mrs. Onassis also visited the John F. Kennedy Peace Memorial and Forest planted by the Jewish National Fund where she planted a pine tree in honor of the late President.

ENDANGERS ALIYA

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- There is a danger of a drop-out rate among Soviet emigrants to 70 percent and more Leon Dulzin, acting chairman of the Jewish Agency Executive warned.

Dulzin, who just returned from New York, said he had urged IIAS and the Joint Distribution Committee to end their activities in Vienna and leave the Jewish Agency as the lone agent there.
