Jack:

I think you'll find the enclosed news item encouraging -- The 90 million dollars that was cut from Syrian aid carried an important message -- Loud and Clear -- We're not going to continue to reward our enemies for murdering or oppressing our friends. I hope the message is heard.

Congratulations to Sissy Keyes who will be managing the Glenby Beauty Salon at the new Broadway (Meadows) Dept. Store. New trends are at her fingertips.

Even dogs can fall victim of catastrophic diseases. We've a friend (and many of you know her) whose pet has become diabetic and requires nominal daily care. Our friend's own illness makes it difficult for her to minister to the small, well trained and lovable pooch. Why not adopt the pet who even comes with a generous endowment for its care. Give me a jingle, won't you? 878 - 8038. (G. B.)

Our heartfelt condolences to Zillah Stramm on the passing of her father.

Congratulations to Dr. Howard Weidenfeld (D.C.) who opens his offices on East Sahara shortly.

The public is invited to an All City Swim Meet, sponsored by the City of Las Vegas, held at Garside Jr. High School Pool on Saturday, August 12th at 9 a.m.

Answer to last week's trivia: All but 3 of the 613 commandments may be violated to save a life. They are those which forbid idolatry, adultery and murder.

FACT: The largest name in history was that of a Jew. According to the Guinness Book of Records, an Eiffel Tower sign reading Citroen in 68 ft. high letters was displayed from 1925 to 1936.

TRIVIA: Our present monotheistic concept are considered distinctly Jewish contributions to the world. Who, prior, to the rise of Judaism, suggested and tried to implement a monotheistic philosophy?
Shalom y'all.
