

ISRAELI, EGYPTIAN DIPLOMATS FRIENDLY IN ROME

VATICAN CITY (WNS) -- A friendly handshake and wishes for success for the Camp David summit talks were exchanged here September 4 between Israel's Ambassador to Italy Zeev Shek and Egyptian Culture and Information Minister El Sawi. The two headed delegations received by Pope John Paul I the day after his investiture. The brief encounter occurred after their audiences with the pontiff. Shek told the Pope he brought a benediction from Jerusalem and quoted a Biblical reference saying: "The Almighty will give strength to his people, the Almighty will bless his people in peace." Pope John Paul responded: "May there be peace in the Holy Land." In another incident, an Israeli Embassy spokesman said that as Shek was driving from St. Peter's Square after the investiture an unidentified person shouted: "Thank you for what you are doing for the Christians in Lebanon." The surrounding crowd applauded. The American delegation attending the Pope's investiture was headed by Vice President Walter Mondale and included Theodore Mann, chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations.

ISRAEL'S NEW UN AMBASSADOR GREETED BY WALDHEIM

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- Yehuda Blum, Israel's new Ambassador to the United Nations, told reporters he had "a very cordial and useful conversation" with Secretary General Kurt Waldheim and "I look forward to cooperating with him closely in the future" shortly after he presented his credentials to the UN's chief executive September 5. During his press conference Blum avoided making any predictions about the Camp David summit talks. However, he said that "Israel hopes that these talks will take us one further step towards the establishment of a genuine peace in the Middle East." He also said he expects the General Assembly, which convenes September 19, to be very difficult for Israel. The Arab "rejectionist states" will attack Israel at the UN even if the summit proves to be successful, he said. "They will try to torpedo any progress toward a peaceful solution," Blum observed.
