

AGUDAT ISRAEL'S LEADER SCORES ON HUMAN RIGHTS

By David Horowitz

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- Dr. Isaac Lewin, noted Human Rights authority representing the Agudat Israel World Union within the Non-Governmental Organizations here as an Observer, is a very happy man these days. Reason for his joy is a dramatic victory he managed to score over a Soviet delegate who tried in vain to introduce an amendment to a resolution inspired and drafted by Dr. Lewin and which amendment would have greatly weakened the intent of the resolution.

The Third Committee of the Assembly was debating the Lewin inspired draft entitled "Elimination of All Forms of Religious Intolerance." The USSR delegate had objected to the words "give high priority" contained in the following clause:

"Requests the Commission on Human Rights at its 35th session to give high priority to the drafting of the Declaration of the Elimination of Intolerance and of Discrimination based on religion or belief, and to strive toward completion of the draft declaration at that session..."

The Soviet proposal for the deletion of the words "high priority" was suggested by Viet Nam whose spokesman introduced an amendment which called for the replacement of the two words with "due attention." The proposal was defeated by a vote of 38 for, 50 against with 36 abstentions. Significantly, when it came to a vote on the whole resolution, not a single member voted against it. It mustered 104 votes with 25 abstentions. This came as a personal victory for Dr. Lewin who, in a visit to the office of your correspondent, stated: A decisive victory in the cause of human rights has been achieved by the adoption of this resolution. I am extremely hopeful that the Human Rights Commission in Geneva will now draft the text of the Declaration and that next year the General Assembly will proclaim this important document as a sequence to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights."

Dr. Lewin had managed to enlist the following states to sponsor his resolution: Austria, Canada, Columbia, Dominican Republic, France, Ghana, Honduras, Ireland, Italy, Jamaica, Lesotho, Netherlands, Nigeria, Norway, Suriname, - United Kingdom, U.S., Venezuela, Sweden, Costa Rica, Federal Republic of Germany, Uruguay, Denmark and Australia.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Avraham Katz, chairman of the World Zionist Organization's Youth and hechalutz department, plans to propose to the WZO Executive that two separate movements be established among World Jewry, one for aliya and one to support Israel, to replace the present designations of Zionist and non-Zionist.
