Hats off this week to Florence Sabbath whose unparalleled warmth and energy most certainly deserve mention. Florence, whose successes span many years in Las Vegas never says no to an organization in need and continues to make major contributions to Temple Beth Sholom, its Sisterhood and the Jewish Community. Those who work with her and depend on her know better than most that she adds "Tom" to whatever she does.

Allied Arts Council has a bi-monthly listing of music, dance, theatre, visual art, museum events happening throughout So. Nevada. To receive your copy, call 384-1208.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to George Rudiah who now recovers from a recent surgery. Wife Gertrude's T.L.C. (Tender Loving Care) will insure George's recuperation.

The marvelous one-act comedies "Public Ear - Private Eye" opens at your Little Theatre and will run thru Feb. 3. It promises to be a most entertaining evening. 735 - 0167.

Sheila Beckerman, good friend since our high school days, visited our town this weekend. One of our main topics of conversation was our upcoming class reunion of "Beep" years.

Poils & Gems: True friendship is like phosphorescence -- it glows best when the world around goes dark.

Answer to last week's trivia: The second most translated book in the world is Karl Marx "Das Kapital."

TRIVIA: Michelangelo's great Renaissance sculpture "Moses" depicts the Lawgiver as having two small horns on his head, of the kind you might find on a young deer. What is the origin of this quaint notion?
Sholom y'all.
