Liberace
A VALENTINE SPECIAL

UP, UP, AND AWAY! — Liberace makes a balloon landing in the Las Vegas Hilton parking lot during the supershowman's gala CBS-TV Valentine Special, network airing Saturday, Feb. 3, at 10 p.m. Scenes also were filmed on the Hilton stage, at Lee's home here, and on the Queen Mary.

EDDY ARNOLD, GEORGE GOBEL IN SAHARA'S CONGO ROOM TO FEB. 7

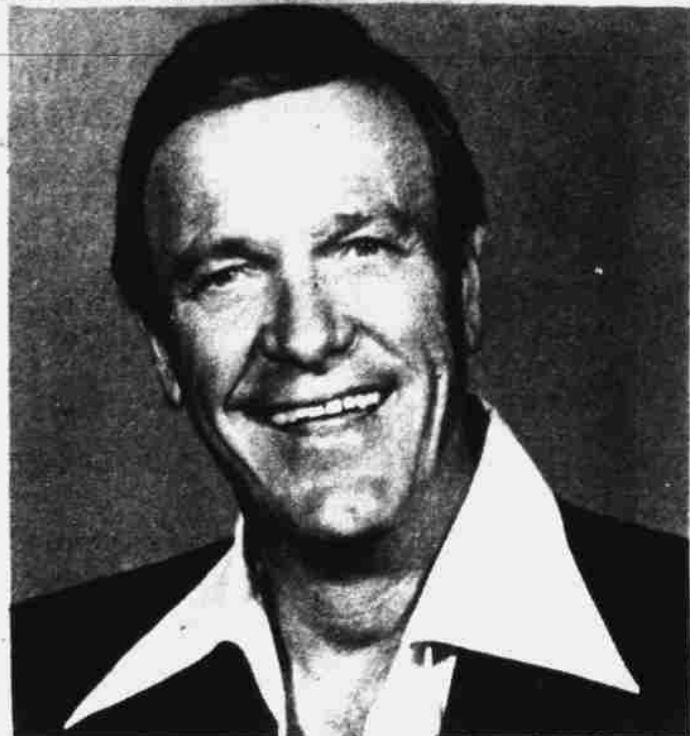

Hotel Sahara's split bill policy is ably demonstrated this week with the co-headlining of country singer Eddy Arnold and "Lonesome George" Gobel in the Congo Room for the 8 o'clock dinner show, while the sophisticated humor of George Carlin and the vocal efforts of Deborah Brown take over for the midnight show.

There are not many living legends, but Eddy Arnold must be considered in, or close to, that category. His smooth approach to a lyric is a goal reached for (and rarely accomplished) by most performers who have come on the scene since he first came along. Eddy's fans are all over the world, and from every walk of life.

His good buddy, George Gobel, shares the same early beginnings and has been pleasing audiences with his low-key delivery and country-style humor for many a year. George can also warble a tune or two and proves it in this outing.

A few seasons back, George Carlin chucked the "establishment" image and started all over again with what he felt was the only honest approach to his feelings about humor. Deborah Brown, has impressive musical credits.
