CALL FOR LAW AND ORDER IN NEBRON

JERUSALEM (WNS) --The Cabinet called on the leaders of Hebron and Kiryat Arba to work for law and order and almost unanimously condemned the Gush Emunim, its views and methods.

These expressions were sounded in the aftermath of the clash between Jews and Arabs at the Machpela Cave where Arab youths desecrated and destroyed Jewish religious articles and where Jews were accused of having destroyed a Koran. A Cabinet communique said efforts would continue to apprehend those responsible for the desecration of both Jewish and Moslem religious articles and putting them on trial "soon and impartially."
