

INTERFAITH SERVICE APR. 1, AT BETH SHOLOM

A community-wide interfaith service for peace to mark the signing of the historic peace treaty between Israel and Egypt is scheduled to take place on Sunday, April 1st, at 3:00 P.M., at Temple Beth Sholom, 1600 East Oakey Boulevard. The Ecumenical Service for Peace is being planned by members of the Clark County Ministerial Association in cooperation with clergy of all faiths throughout the city, the National Council for Christians and Jews, the United Campus Ministry, the Combined Jewish Appeal of Las Vegas and Temple Beth Sholom. Representatives of the interfaith religious community will participate in the Service for Peace along with national, state and local dignitaries and informal representatives of the local Egyptian and Israeli communities.

Rabbi Kalman Appel, spiritual leader of Temple Beth Sholom, said, "The signing of the peace treaty between Israel and Egypt is a momentous event not only for the two countries directly involved; it is also a major step forward in advancing the cause of stability in the Middle East and in protecting America's vital interests in that part of the world."

POLYCHROME PASSOVER HAGGADAH

A monumental feat of scholarship has been executed by Rabbi Jacob Freedman, of Box 317, Springfield, Mass. 01108.

Dr. Freedman has produced a Polychrome Passover Haggadah.

That means he has isolated the eras in which the various segments of the Haggadah were written and, in different colors, indicated the time of their composition.

The Haggadah has appeared, although payment on it has lagged, because Rabbi Freedman has little in the way of resources and isn't much of a fund-raiser.

Now he has done even a more prodigious thing: he has created a Polychrome Siddur.

This gigantic feat is dazzling.

The Siddur, alas, is still in manuscript form and money is needed for its publication.

praised Rabbi Freedman's accomplishments. Catholic and Protestant divines, the leaders of Israel, and many scholars have marveled at what he has done. Rabbi Freedman has earmarked copies of his Haggadah to memorialize Golda Meir. He has also sent copies of the Haggadah to Christian institutions.
