

SANDY DUNCAN CONTINUES WITH RICH LITTLE AT MGM TO MAY 23

Rich Little is a man who is always beside himself. In fact, 160 people besides himself. And, he has brought them all back to the majestic Celebrity Room of the MGM Grand Hotel for an exciting three-week special engagement with the pert and vivacious star of movies and television, Sandy Duncan.

Rich is recognized as the world's greatest impressionist and one easily sees why as the master of the carbon copy xerox's, not only the voices, but the facial expressions and special gestures of the celebrities he mimics.

And, his impressions include the singing voices of many musical stars as well as the straight speaking voices of the top names in politics, movies and television.

His singing duplications include Perry Como, Bing Crosby, Engelbert, Dean Martin, Tom Jones, Mac Davis, Johnny Mathis and Neil Diamond.

His show at the Grand also includes a special interview segment between Richard Nixon, on film, and Walter Cronkite, live.

DON RICKLES, GLEN SMITH IN SAHARA'S CONGO ROOM TO MAY 23

The man who single-handedly made household words out of "venum" and "snarl" has been spewing out his insults to packed Congo Showrooms twice a night at Del Webb's Hotel Sahara. With him is the Strip's latest bright young man of music, Glenn Smith.

Rickles, whose alley-cat tactics (especially as he ripped apart his celebrity-filled audiences) brought him to the top of the show-biz ladder in short order, is now just a de-clawed pussycat, but his popularity is greater than ever. Congo Room patrons vie for the opportunity of sitting ringside just to receive a Rickles barb or two. And the celebs are still to be found in every audience. To be singled out for one of Don's diatribes is making it, man!

Glenn Smith is one of those performers who hasn't made it -- yet. But all the ingredients are there.

The Don Rickles-Glenn Smith engagement continues through May 23, with an 8 o'clock (dinner) and a midnight (cocktails - only) show nightly.

WINDING UP A BRIEF ONE-WEEK ENGAGEMENT IN THE SAHARA'S CASBAR THEATRE IS THE LEGENDARY JAN MURRAY. JAN'S PERFORMANCES ARE SCHEDULED TWICE EACH NIGHT, THROUGH SUNDAY. WAYLAND FLOWERS AND MADAME OPEN THE CASBAR THEATRE ON TUESDAY, ALSO FOR ONE WEEK.
