

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

NEW YORK (WNS) -- An American Jewish Committee report blames the presence of pro-Arab persons in key positions in a number of major American Christian churches with the growth of anti-Israel, as well as anti-Jewish, attitudes in the United States.

ROME (WNS) -- Greek Catholic Bishop Hilarion Capucci, the former Melchite Bishop of Jerusalem, has been given a new job by Pope John Paul II. Capucci, who met with the Pope May 7, will administer to the Melchite groups in France, Belgium, Luxembourg, the Netherlands and Switzerland.

PARIS (WNS) -- A fire, reportedly accidental, damaged the historic Bezalel Synagogue in Djerba, Tunisia May 8. Seven Torah scrolls, the Ark and prayer books were lost in the fire.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Funeral services were held in Netanya May 13 for Pinhas Papiashvilli, 27, who was killed May 10 in an explosion at a military industries plant near Ramat Hasharon.

WASHINGTON -- Senator Charles H. Percy (R. Ill.) said that the execution of Habiballah Elghanian, an Iranian Jew, on charges of "contact with Israel and Zionism" contradicts a personal assurance he received in writing from a representative of Ayatollah Khomeini.

NEW YORK (WUP) -- Rebutting a recent Times Editorial titled "Israel Digs Deep Into the West Bank," writer Manfred Ohrenstein charges that the paper's "reference to 'dangerous opportunism' indicates a naive acceptance of the Arab world's definition of history."

NEW YORK (WUP) -- Dr. David Hyatt, President of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, has endorsed a proposal by the American Friends of Anne Frank Center to have the governors of all 50 states proclaim June 12 as Anne Frank Day.

BONN (WNS) -- The Justice Minister of North Rhine - Westphalia has announced a full pardon for anti-Nazi fighter Beate Klarsfeld, who received a two-month jail sentence in Cologne in 1974. She was found guilty of inflicting bodily harm and duress on former SS officer Kurt Lischka, who as the Gestapo chief in Paris during World War II has been accused of the responsibility for the murder of at least 22,000 French Jews.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Israeli Premier Menachem Begin, in an address to a B'nai B'rith luncheon here May 14, noted that the question of Jerusalem will be one of the major problems to be solved in future peace negotiations. But he added, "Just like Washington, D.C., will never be divided, neither will Jerusalem, capital of Israel."

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan told a Knesset committee that after his visit to Nepal Libya closed down its embassy there.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Difficulties arising from the expropriation of Bedouin lands have led American construction firms to abandon plans to build a large military airfield at Tel Malhata in the Negev.

MONTREAL (WNS) -- Rabbi M.F. Lowy, head of a 300-member Orthodox congregation in the Sainte Theresa district north of Montreal, has asked the Quebec provincial government for municipal status for his community because it is growing.

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (WNS) -- The resolution committee of the 54th national convention of the American Red Cross has rejected a proposal urging the Red Cross to press for recognition by the International Red Cross and the League of Red Cross Societies of Magen David Adom.

PARIS (WNS) -- The prestigious Cochin Hospital announced the forced resignation of its dean, Prof. Pierre Maurer, because of his service with the SS during World War II.

NEW YORK -- American Jewry's three major community relations agencies -- the American Jewish Committee, the American Jewish Congress, and the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith -- have launched a wide-ranging joint information effort aimed at demonstrating to American public opinion that the city of Jerusalem, in any overall Middle East settlement, must remain unified and the capital of Israel.

PLEASE SUPPORT KOSHER BUTCHER

The Kosher Butcher Shop has been completely over-hauled with the very freshest of meats from California with a new butcher who knows his work. It is as fine a butcher shop as you will find anywhere. If you were disappointed when they first opened, you will be very surprised at what you will find there now. We urge you to support it or we will be without a Kosher Butcher in the next 10 years again.

NEW YORK -- The Honorable Sara Stern Katan, M.K., who has the distinction of being the only religious woman member of the Israeli Knesset, will be among the many prominent personalities addressing the National Convention of Emunah Women of America at the Pine View Hotel, Fallsburg, New York, on May 25th through May 27th.

NEW YORK -- Natalia Braz, the 41 year old Russian Refusnik who was "adopted" by Emunah Women of America last year, has received permission to immigrate to Israel.
