JODI REISMAN BAT MITZVAH

Jodi Reisman, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Larry Nelson, will be called to the Torah and become a Bat Mitzvah during services at Temple Beth Shalom, on Saturday morning, June 16, 1979.

Rabbi Kalman Appel, spiritual leader of the Temple, will officiate and conduct the services which commence at 9:00 A.M.

The parents of the Bat Mitzvah will host the congregation to a Kiddush in the Temple's Entratter Social Hall immediately after the conclusion of services.

JODI

AMBASSADOR BLUM WARNS UNITED NATIONS THAT ISRAEL WILL TAKE ANY AND ALL MEASURES AGAINST PLO

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- Ambassador Yehudah Z. Blum has warned this organization that, in the face of unceasing terrorist attacks, Israel will continue to "take all measures necessary to protect the lives and safety of its citizens."

In a letter submitted to Secretary-General Waldheim last week, Ambassador Blum gave the following account of the recent criminal PLO actions:

"On June 4, 1979, a coastal patrol of the Israeli Navy intercepted a speedboat attempting to enter Israel waters off Rosh Hanikra on the border with Lebanon. A number of missiles were spotted aboard and the boat was ordered to stop. When it resisted and tried to make off, it was engaged in an exchange of fire in the course of which it sank. In the wreckage, a floating rocket launcher was found with a delaying

Familiar Jewish Quotations

L. ROSTEN'S BOOK CHARACTER

Saloons can't corrupt good men, and synagogues can't reform bad ones.

Spots on the character can be removed -- with a little gold.

It is better to have nobility of character than nobility of birth.

A giant is very tall even though he stands in a well.

Better a crooked foot than a crooked mind. Every innkeeper praises his beer.

It may be that you will find an honest saloon-keeper, or a shepherd who is a thief.

What's in a man is sure to come out, one way or another.

Spit in a whore's face and she'll say, "It's raining."

If the light is crooked, the shadow is crooked. The cloak of a saint may cover the character of a scoundrel.

The man who is not good for himself is not good for others.

Should a peasant become a king, he still would not take the basket off his head.

Rub him with honey and he'll still smell of tar.

To accept an excuse shows a good character.

He enjoys giving so much that he hopes others will be in need, so that he may help them.

To drunkards, no liquor is bad; to merchants, no money is tainted; to lechers, no woman is ugly.

He is the kind of man who first prepared the bandage, then inflicts the wound.

What a man wants, he does not have; what he has, he does not prize.

There are three types of "doers." If a man says, "I shall do it soon," his character is poor; if he says, "I am ready to do it," his character is average; if he says "I am doing it," his character is praiseworthy.

God decides what shall befall a man, but not whether he shall be righteous or wicked.

You can know a man by three signs, his tips, his tipling, and his temper.

There are four types among men:

The ordinary one says: "What is mine is mine, and what is yours is yours."

The queer one says: "What is mine is yours, and what is yours is mine."

The saintly one says: "What is mine is yours, and what is yours is yours."

IRANIAN LEADER EXECUTED BECAUSE HE'S A JEW

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- At a press conference at Ben Gurion Airport, French lawyer Serge Klarsfeld declared that Habib Elkanian, the former leader of the Iranian Jewish community was executed as a Jew despite the denials of the Iranian government. Klarsfeld, who spent several days in Iran to investigate the May 9 execution of Elkanian and to intercede in behalf of Jewish political prisoners there, flew to Israel immediately after returning to Paris May 30.

He brought with him a photo copy of the charge sheet used at Elkanian's trial. He noted that the charge sheet opens with the words: "Habib Elkanian, Jew, Teheran born, spy, rich and Zionist. . . ." He said that these words indicate that Elkanian was executed for being a Jew and a Zionist. The charge sheet claims that Elkanian was a spy for Israel, extorting money from poor Iranians and giving money to a "hostile country, Israel, which kills Arab brethren."
