

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Jack L. Cummings, of Montreal, has been elected chairman of the Board of Governors of Tel Aviv University, succeeding Dr. Raymond Sackler, of New York City, who held the post for four years. Cummings is the first Canadian to head the Board.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Student Struggle for Soviet Jewry reports that it has been under FBI surveillance since May 1, 1964, four days after it was founded. The organization, which has militantly pressed the cause of Soviet Jewry for emigration and civil rights, said it has received a copy of a 100 - page FBI dossier six months after requesting it under the Freedom of Information Act.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- The military government has allowed the husbands of a group of women from Kiryat Arba, who have been squatting along with their children in the old Hadassah Hospital in Hebron for more than two months, to spend the Sabbath with them for the first time June 30. The families conducted religious services and celebrated the birth of a daughter to one of the women.

MONTREAL (WNS) -- Kamel Abdel-Malek, a 26 - year - old Egyptian student has been accepted by the Hebrew University in Jerusalem, the first Egyptian to study in Israel since the establishment of the Jewish State, the Canadian Friends of Hebrew University reported here. A native of Alexandria, Egypt, Abdel - Malek has been studying at a Montreal university for the past two years.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Queens Jewish Community Council has urged the district attorney to seek maximum penalties against youths charged with vandalism against religious institutions and to remove racist or anti - religious graffiti from public areas.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Boris Gramm, a graduate of Rostov University and Isaak Fuchs, a graduate of Kiev Technical, will begin a three-year crash course in rabbinical studies at Yeshiva University here in September, reportedly the first time Soviet Jews will be trained as rabbis in the U.S. Rabbi Arthur Schneier, president of the Appeal of Conscience Foundation, which is sponsoring and underwriting the Soviet - approved study, made the announcement in Moscow.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Ten persons were injured and 38 arrested when local Arab villagers tried to block work on an access road to a new settlement in the Galilee. But work continues unhampered on the road to the new settlement of the Mitzpeh (lookout). The clash started when residents of the Arab village of Mailis protested the road being built by the Jewish National Fund on government - owned land even though the village council and village elders had agreed earlier to permit the work to proceed.

PARIS (WNS) -- A neo - Nazi group calling itself "Odessa" claimed that it placed the bomb which wrecked the car of Nazi - hunter Serge Klarsfeld. An anonymous letter received by the French news agency, Agence France Presse, warned that unless "The Jews stop persecuting our comrades we shall have to envisage an extreme solution" for Klarsfeld.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Five Knesset Members have introduced a private member bill to legalize prostitution in an apartment, hotel room, car or boat. The bill would stiffen penalties against procurers and pimps.
