Crafty Arafat

NEW YORK (WUP) -- Perhaps the most traveled man in the world next to Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim is Israel's arch-enemy Yasir Arafat whose recent royal welcome in Vienna by Bruno Kreisky and Willy Brandt came as a great blow to Israel and world Jewry. For the PLO, most of the Arab states and the Soviet Union the visit was viewed with great delight.

As Hitler succeeded for years to hoodwink leaders of state, so his modern counterpart-in-hate of the Jews has managed to worm his way into the presence of Prime Ministers, Chancellors and Presidents of nations big and small feigning, as Adolf Hitler pretended in raging outcries, to be a 'victim' of Jewish-Western - inspired aggression and influences.

As the golem - Hitler appeared to be somewhat mystically - motivated by an evil spirit in his lust for Jewish blood, so Arafat, set in his murderous goals, seems guided by a similar satanic impulse aimed at the extinction of the Jewish State.

While the Soviets have been using the Cubans for their overt adventures in Africa and elsewhere, they are covertly engaging Arafat and his PLO terrorists as special 'agents' to carry on KGB-type activities in various parts of the globe to create situations such as developed in Iran prior to the fall of the Shah and the rise of the greater evil of the Ayatollah Khomeini.

Whether or not Kreisky and Brandt were hoodwinked by the PLO chieftain remains a question. One thing is certain, both were assuredly aware of his murderous deeds in and outside of Israel; both were not ignorant of his direct link to Moscow, of his role in Iran, of his vicious attacks against Sadat and Begin and the U.S. over the Camp David peace accords. Why then did they embrace this avowed Hitlerian enemy of Israel?

There can be but one answer: expediency, the threat of blackmail, currying the favor of the oil - rich Arabs.

According to a USSR press release, the Russians expressed great delight and satisfaction over this bloodthirsty terrorist's success in Austria and over the fact that the three, Kreisky, Arafat and Brandt -- in the name of 'Socialism' -- had issued a joint communique on the rights of the Palestinians. For Moscow this was a great victory and the Kremlin could not have wished for a better ally than it has in this vicious enemy of Jewry.

And it is because he knows that he enjoys the full backing of the USSR, that he has emboldened himself not only to threaten Israel's existence but also the security and welfare of the United States. And possessing the power of the dagger in his hands, Arab Sheiks and Kings fear him and the radicals in the Moslem world find in him an image of their own secret selves.

But as for the 'meshumad' Kreisky and the new Brandt -- shame on you and the perverted 'Socialism' you espouse. Hitler is gloating in his grave.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Shmuel Katz, who was Premier Menachem Begin's advisor on propaganda in the early stages of the Likud government, has resigned from Herut.

Propaganda

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- Apparently deeply worried over the latest developments in Israel, the members of the pro-PLO Committee on Palestinians Rights met here last week and proposed, among other matters, that the United Nations establish an "information" (propaganda) unit to campaign globally for the "rights of the Palestinians" versus Israel.

The Committee also decided to send a letter to the President of the Security Council urging him to call upon the Council "to consider the recommendations of the Committee again as soon as possible in order to take measures for their implementation."

These recommendations, in effect, spell the demise of the Jewish State. They include a timetable for Israeli withdrawal from the occupied areas in "a two - stage plan for return of the Palestinians to their homes and the establishment of an independent PLO entity."

The first stage, as recommended, calls for withdrawal to the 1967 borders; the second stage to the 1948 boundaries.

Speaking on behalf of the PLO, Observer Zehdi Labib Terzi, aware of the position taken by Israel's new Prime Minister on the occupied areas, confronted the Committee with this query:

"In the event that the bilateral contacts which had been going on for years did not lead anywhere, what would become of the recommendations of the Committee, which were not the recommendations of the General Assembly?" He then stated that the Committee had a duty to follow up on them.

Fully supported by the Committee members, Mr. Terzi suggested that the "information campaign" to be conducted on a world-wide scale should emphasize a number of points, among them, he said, "the scandalous behavior" of the United States in "forcing the adoption of the resolution partitioning Palestine" (completely overlooking the fact that the Soviet Union had also approved it); that "the Assembly resolution accepting Israel as a member of the UN had been conditional on Israel's allowing the Palestinians to return." He then questioned Israel's legality as a Member.

Commenting on the Committee's recommendations as they were contained in its report originally submitted to the Security Council last year, Ambassador Chaim Herzog had this to say at the time:

"Israel rejects outright the report of the so - called Palestine Committee, just as it rejected General Assembly Resolution 3376 which created it. Alongside Israel, the countries of the Free World also did not support that Resolution, because it was considered wholly one-sided, unbalanced, and biased. Hence the composition of the Committee, sixteen of its 20 members do not have diplomatic relations with Israel, and some of whom even deny to this day Israel's right to exist. Moreover, not a single Western country of standing agreed to take part in the work of the Committee, so utterly prejudiced was it considered to be."

Herzog further stated that "the PLO was the dominant factor in the drafting of the report and, in keeping with the PLO's declared aims, the Committee's recommendations are in effect a calculated formula for the destruction of the State of Israel. There can be no doubt about this end, even if it is designed to be achieved in stages..."

Converting to Judaism

By Rabbi Samuel M. Silver

I was recently scolded by Mrs. Guenter Menke, of Simi Valley, California.

Responding to a column about conversions to Judaism, in which I wrote that the only ones I know about are those prompted by matrimony, Mrs. Menke wrote as follows:

"I have read your column and am deeply offended.

"As a fairly recent convert and as an observant Jewess, I cannot believe that you really 'looked far and wide for Christians who have been attracted to Judaism because of religious convictions, but have not found any.'

"You are presumptuous.

"My family and I immersed ourselves in G-d's holiest mikvah and became full-fledged members of the Jewish peoplehood July 16, 1978, not because either of us had married a Jew, but because of my lifelong convictions and my ability to convince my husband and young children that this was the best path for us.

"You couldn't have searched very far, sir!

"Our conversion was not kept a secret. In fact, the announcement of our daughter's Bat Mitzvah appeared in the Los Angeles Messenger. I wish you could have been there. She did a magnificent job!

"We are not only dedicated to our faith, but we rejoice in the fact that we are observant and are able to keep a Jewish home.

"If you would care for corroboration, write our rabbi, William J. Gordon, Temper Ner Tamid, Simi Valley, Cal."

I apologize, Mrs. Menke. My compliments, Rabbi Gordon.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- A group of some 150 reserve soldiers have protested to Chief of Staff Gen. Raphael Eytan over his reduction from eight years to two of a sentence imposed by a military court on an Israeli officer convicted of murdering four Arab prisoners during Israel's occupation of south Lebanon in 1978.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- A large bomb was discovered recently in the Petah Tikva market and was dismantled before it could explode. A 16 - year - old boy from Nablus saw a suspicious parcel under a vegetable vendor's stand and called the police.
