LETTERS

Dear Jack:

This year, for the second time, I have taken the opportunity to bring to my colleagues' attention the appeal made by Edouard Mikhalovich Rynsky and his family for assistance in emigrating from the Soviet Union.

I am enclosing a copy of my statement made on his behalf on July 12, 1979, and also copies of my letters to Mr. Rynsky and Congressman Howard, for your further information.

It is my earnest hope that this "Shatter the Silence Vigil" maintained by the United States Congress will result in early emigration to Israel for the Rynsky family and all the others who desire to leave the Soviet Union.

Sincerely,

JAMES D. SANTINI
Member of Congress
