

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

WOODBORNE, N.Y. (WNS) -- An Israel aliya center has been opened in a storefront on Main Street in this Catskill Mountains community to reach Jewish vacationers during the summer. The center is operated by Shifra Hoffman, executive director of Shuba, and Jay Shapiro, an emissary from Israel, in conjunction with the Israel Aliya Department, the Jewish Agency and the North American Aliya Movement.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Haifa is sprucing up for Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's arrival by yacht in August. The visit has brought to life a project begun 25 years ago, the construction of a modern passenger terminal, which observers say would have taken another 25 years if it were not for the impending arrival of Sadat. Workers are now trying to get it built in time.

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- The UN has finally confirmed that 28 members of the Fiji contingent of UNIFIL had been abducted and held by the PLO recently. A spokesman for the Secretary-General told the press corps here last week that the report of the abduction had been an accurate one and that the UN had never denied its accuracy. Following a protest by the Fiji Government, the soldiers were released.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Leon Dulzin, chairman of the World Zionist Organization and Jewish Agency Executives, has stressed here that he is not opposed to assistance for Soviet Jewish emigrants once they arrive in the United States but "there is no justification, moral or otherwise, to finance their travels, which indirectly encourage them not to go to Israel." Dulzin said that the Soviet Jews who get to Vienna "on Israeli visas are enabled to do so only thanks to the devotion."

$50,000⁰⁰ REWARD

for information leading to the safe return of Cary Sayegh kidnaped October 25, 1978, from the Albert Einstein School, 17th and Dakey, Las Vegas, Nevada. Please give information to FBI, telephone number 385-1281, or Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, telephone number 386-3111.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The Foreign Ministry has protested the cancellation by the Rumanian government of two concerts the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra was scheduled to give in Bucharest Sept. 27 and 9. Zubin Mehta, the orchestra's musical director, said that the excuse that a suitable auditorium could not be found was unacceptable. The concerts were part of a cultural exchange program between Israel and Rumania and Mehta noted that a Bucharest Opera House troupe had performed 12 times in Israel under the agreement.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Mayor Marion Barry and Israel Ambassador Ephraim Evron opened a photo panel exhibit of Jerusalem at the Martin Luther King Memorial Library, Washington's central public library. The exhibit entitled "Jerusalem: Keeping the Past Alive," is sponsored by the Washington Zionist Federation.

UNITED NATIONS (WUP) -- China has equated the fate of the Indochina refugees with that of the Jews under the Hitlerian regime. "The outrage of creating and exporting refugees by the Vietnamese government has aroused indignation in the world. International public opinion pointed out that the Vietnamese atrocity of genocide is the most merciless and despicable act in modern history and only the Nazi extermination of the Jews can match it..."

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- Buffalo, N. Y. is sending its sister city in Israel, Kiryat Gat, two American buffalos. The buffalos, the first in the Middle East, will be housed in the Biblical Zoo in Jerusalem where special facilities have been constructed for their display and eventual breeding. The animals were supplied by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.
