

Celebrate Hanukkah Through Song

Families will be able to celebrate Hanukkah with song this year, by using a wide variety of materials for the holiday produced by the Board of Jewish Education of Greater New York.

The youthful voices of Hebrew school choirs carry the lively melodies of Hanukkah in one of BJE's Holiday Melody Cassettes. "Hanukkah Melodies" features some of the holiday's best loved songs, and will be a welcome addition to family gatherings, where parents and children alike will enjoy learning and singing together. A companion songbook features musical notations and chords, with lyrics in Hebrew, English, and English transliteration. "Hanukkah Melodies" is available at a cost of $6.00; songbooks are $2.50 each. The complete cassette/songbook set is $8.00.

Hanukkah Songs for Children is a record album recorded by the noted musicians, Shimon and Ilana. Containing 16 favorite melodies, it includes the Hanukkah blessings, Maoz Tzur, and Hanukkah Chag Yafeh. The record is accompanied by a song sheet with lyrics in Hebrew, English and English transliteration. It is available at a cost of $4.95.

Music is an important feature of HaSivivon Mahapess Haver - The Draydle Seeks a Friend, a delightful animated 16mm film in Hebrew. This 10 - minute film about a lonely draydle who finds a friend is a perfect supplement to Hanukkah festivities. It is available at a cost of $80.00. So this year, why not sing along with Hanukkah celebrations? Individuals wanting further information about any of these materials should contact the Marketing Department, Board of Jewish Education of Greater New York, 426 West 58th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019 (212) 245 - 8200.

The Board of Jewish Education of Greater New York, a member agency of the Federation of Jewish Philanthropies, is the world's largest central agency for Jewish education. It conducts a broad range of city - wide and regional educational and cultural programs aimed at improving the scope and quality of Jewish education for youths and adults. Serving some 110,000 children in 600 Jewish schools, and thousands of school personnel and adults through specialized guidance, educational materials, and inter - generationally - oriented programs, BJE provides leadership and service to the Greater New York Jewish community. Alvin Hellerstein of Manhattan is President; Dr. Alvin I. Schiff of Oceanside is Executive Vice President.

ISRAEL TO HELP REFUGEES

The Government of Israel has decided to extend medical and humanitarian aid to the Cambodian refugees, whose plight is arousing increasing sympathy throughout the world. The Government of Israel is one of the first to embark upon a humanitarian aid program in response to the situation of the Cambodian refugees.

According to the Israel government's decision, an interministerial committee composed of representatives of the Prime Minister's Office, the Ministries of Foreign Affairs, Health, Labour, Social Welfare, and El Al Airlines, has been established in order to coordinate activities connected with the speedy dispatch of aid to the refugees.

As a first step, medical supplies and equipment will be sent to the field clinics which are presently located along the Thai-Cambodian border and where a proposed 15 - man Israeli volunteer medical team will be working.

As Israel has no diplomatic relations with Cambodia, its aid will reach the refugees through Thailand. The Embassy of Israel in Bangkok is cooperating with the Thai Red Cross and the Thai Prime Minister's Office in channeling the aid to its destination.
