

EDUCATIONAL GIFTS FOR HANUKAH SUGGESTED

This year, when planning Hanukkah gifts for family and friends, why not include a gift which truly reflects the spirit and meaning of the holiday? The Board of Jewish Education of Greater New York has a number of gift ideas for Hanukkah which will provide lasting and meaningful enjoyment.

When is a dictionary not a dictionary? When it's a fun-filled picture word book overflowing with lively illustrations, bouyant colors, and lots of special features. BJE has three such special dictionaries, which will bring delight to any child, both for Hanukkah and for years to come. Miloni, an illustrated dictionary for children, is for beginning through advanced Hebrew students. Printed entirely in Hebrew, it contains vowelled words in print and script, simple definitions, color illustrations, sample sentences, and an easy alphabet index. In hard cover, containing 216 illustrated pages, it is available at a cost of $7.50.

For beginning Hebrew students, there is Miloni Hakatan, containing 500 words in pictures. It includes vowelled Hebrew entries, color illustrations, and a category format for easy learning. This 36-page hard-cover book is available at a cost of $3.50.

If you'd like to sing while you're reading, there is Celebration: Sing Along With Israel, a delightful record album featuring 13 popular Israeli songs, including "Shalom Al Yisrael" and "Ba-Shana Haba'ah." Recorded in Hebrew and English, each album is accompanied by a song sheet in Hebrew, with English translation. Celebration is available at a cost of $4 per album.

This year, why not give someone Jerusalem - the most precious gem in the treasury of the Jewish people. In David's City, a full-color slide set with companion narration cassette, a native son rejoices in Jerusalem's uniqueness. A world-renowned photographer, Jay Maisel, captures the city's beauty in slides. The companion cassette provides a moving and personal narration which reveals Jerusalem's many faces. The slides and cassette are available at a cost of $26 per set.

These are just a few of the many gift items available from the BJE. They include games, audio dramas, story books, record and slide sets. They can provide a meaningful Hanukkah present, which will be enjoyed and treasured for years to come.

Those wanting further information about any of these items, or who would like a complete list of Hanukkah gift items available from BJE, should contact Hanukkah Gifts, Board of Jewish Education, 426 West 58th Street, New York, N.Y. 10019. (212) 245-8200.
