SECURITY OF ISRAEL
IMPORTANT TO U.S.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Zbigniew Brzezinski, President Carter's National Security Advisor, said here that the Camp David accords constituted "one of the greatest achievements" of the Carter Administration. Addressing 350 delegates to the Jewish Labor Committee's 45th anniversary convention he said "we hope to draw, with Camp David as the beginning, more Arab nations who want to live together with the West, into the treaty process. We want to make Camp David into a wider reality. We will never do anything to minimize the security of Israel." Brzezinski also stated that "Islam is not our enemy" and that the seizing of the U.S. Embassy in Teheran is "an aberration" that goes against the teachings of the Islamic religion.

Shimon Peres, Israel's Labor Party leader, told the convention that "we in Israel knew in our hearts about the secret links between Iran's ruler Ayatollah Ruholla Khomeini and Palestine Liberation Organization chief Yasir Arafat.

He warned that "unless we stand united against the PLO-type terrorists, we shall suffer separately." He said that neither Moslems nor Arabs were the enemies of the free world, but that terrorists, aided and abetted in the main by the Soviet Union, were. Peres stressed that the links between the PLO, the Red Brigades and the Bader - Meinhof gangs made it incumbent on the democratic nations to unite against such terrorist acts.
