

RICH LITTLE, SISTER SLEDGE STAR NEW YEAR'S EVE

Rich Little, the man of a thousand voices, began his second year as a star for the MGM Grand Hotel when he opened his current special one - week holiday engagement with the world-famous rock group Sister Sledge.

Rich, whose opening was a special Wednesday - night affair instead of the Celebrity Room's customary Thursday night, will also perform a special New Year's Eve show on the night of December 31.

His shows at the Grand include a host of his favorite impressions plus special vignettes that feature Richard Nixon and Jimmy Carter in a hilarious live/film conversation and a history of comedic impressionism.

Another highlight of his performances is his medley of singing impressions which include Bing Crosby, Dean Martin, Frank Sinatra, Engelbert, Mac Davis, Perry Como, Johnny Mathis, Robert Goulet and an uncanny Neil Diamond.

Sister Sledge (and Debbie, Joni, Kim and Kathie really are,) who probably did more to help the Pittsburgh Pirates win the World Series than even Willie Stargell as their platinum hit "We Are Family" became the baseball champion's theme song, will be making their debut "Grand - stand."

The gals, whose grandmother was a former opera singer and started them on their careers at the age of two, three, four and six, became recording stars while still in high school. Song, dance and comedy are all integral parts of Sister Sledge's act.

Rich Little and Sister Sledge share the Celebrity Room spotlight through January 2 to be followed by Dean Martin.
