

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Dr. Norman Lamm, president of Yeshiva University declared that "there is no way that Yeshiva University will fold." He was responding to a newspaper story that the Bowery Savings Bank, a New York City Bank, is seeking to foreclose its portion of the university's $40 million mortgage.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Gen. Moshe Nativ, head of the army's manpower branch, revealed that because more women are claiming exemption on religious grounds, the number of women drafted into the armed forces decreased by three percent between 1976 and 1978. He told the Knesset Foreign Affairs and Security Committee that 52.2 percent of draft-age women were inducted in 1978 compared to 55.2 percent in 1976.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Israel and Egypt have inaugurated commercial flights between Tel Aviv and Cairo as part of the normalization process required by their peace treaty. El Al flew its first flight to Cairo and back and Nefertiti, the new Egyptian airline started specifically for the Egypt-Israel route, began its first run to Tel Aviv. Both lines will make round-trip flights twice a week.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The National Conference on Soviet Jewry has reported that 3017 Soviet Jews arrived in Vienna last month of whom 42 percent indicated they would to Israel.

COPEHHAGEN (WNS) -- Water from the Dead Sea is the basis of a new treatment being developed at the University of Bergen in Norway for the treatment of psoriasis. The University's department of dermatology is trying to produce a "Dead Sea Pill" to be given to the chronically ill who can't visit the Dead Sea.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- A Jerusalem labor court has allowed Eliahu Ben - Elissar, Israel's first Ambassador to Egypt, to take Fanny Ashkenazi, his personal secretary for the past seven years, to Cairo with him as his temporary secretary.

LIEBER NAMED CHAIRMAN -- Summa Corp. executive Perry Lieber has been named chairman of the hotel division of the American Cancer Society's Crusade Council for Clark County. The crusade was started Sunday and will run through March 2. Lieber, manager of public relations for Summa since 1970, and other business and professional leaders on the council will be in charge of a fund-raising drive. Lieber is active on the boards of United Way and the Boy Scouts of America.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Four boys and a girl were born to Zippora Arzi, a 28-year-old teacher, who had been taking fertility drugs for several years. She and her husband also has another daughter. The quintuplets, each weighing 3.3 pounds, were delivered in the seventh month by Caesarean-section.

WASHINGTON (WNS) -- The Israeli Embassy in San Salvador has shut down becoming the sixth Embassy to close in El Salvador. Political violence has been steadily increasing against the El Salvador government.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Igor Guberman, a 44-year-old Soviet Jewish activist, will be brought to trial after being held in prison incommunicado since his arrest last August 13, the National Conference on Soviet Jewry has reported. Guberman, a writer and author of popular science books, has been active in the Jewish cultural movement in the USSR and was a contributor to the underground publication, "Jews in the USSR."

UNITED NATIONS (WNS) -- Israel rejected a request by the Security Council to allow Hebron Mayor Fahed Kawasme to come to New York to testify at the Council's debate on Israel's policy on the West Bank and the decision, in principle, to allow Jews to settle in Hebron.

MONTREAL (WNS) -- All four Jews in the Canadian Parliament were re-elected in the election which swept former Premier Pierre Elliott Trudeau's Liberal Party after nine months of Joe Clark's Progressive Conservative Party rule. They are Herbert Grey of Windsor; Robert Kaplan of Toronto, and David Berger, of Quebec, all Liberals, and David Orlikow of the minority New Democratic Party.
