B'NAI B'RITH RAPS CARTER'S UN GOOF

WASH. -- B'nai B'rith International has called on President Carter to "publicly repudiate" the UN Security Council resolution on the Middle East -- which would in effect return Jerusalem to the divided backwash of 13 years ago -- which the U.S. endorsed March 1.

This should be done, said Jack J. Spitzer, B'nai B'rith President, because "the resolution does serious harm to the peace process and because the White House now concedes that some of the resolution's sections are inconsistent with American policy."

CARTER TRIES TO SOOTHE JEWS

NEW YORK (WNS) -- The Carter Administration is making a major effort to calm the anger of American Jews in the wake of the United States vote for a United Nations Security Council Resolution condemning Israel's settlement policies and President Carter's subsequent repudiation of the vote.

The effort was considered especially crucial because of the upcoming primary in New York March 25.

Two of Carter's top aides, Robert Strauss, his campaign manager, and Sol Linowitz, the President's special Ambassador for

Meet Senator Lamb

BY MIKE TELL

SEN. FLOYD LAMB

"Nevada has one square man for each square mile." This popular adage dating back to 1910 embraces the spirit of a state that was "Battle Born." More importantly it describes the kind of man that was the essence of old Nevada. A man who was honest, direct and whose word was his bond, a man like Senator Floyd Lamb. Who better typifies the fervor and drive of

Passover Marvel

(The following information was gathered from the Columbia Encyclopedia, The Story of Pesach published by a commercial matzoth company, and Tolstoi.)

How much can be added to a story that has been commemorated and told in every Jewish family during the annual Seder? True, each year the ceremonial portion of the traditional party dwindles, while the menu for the feast keeps expanding in proportion to the new products that hit the market, labled Kosher for Passover. The soup-to-nuts Seder now includes canned soups, frozen meats, all flavors of soda pop, many kinds of candy and after-dinner mints - all legitimately in keeping with Passover dietary laws, and stylish.

But the story persists, nevertheless.

It had its inception long before Moses, when Jacob's son Joseph, was sold into slavery by his brothers. Joe, with his Jewish "kup" interpreted a dream of the king Pharaoh which saved Egypt from starvation. All Joe did was store up grain during the years of plenty for food during the years of starvation.

Generations later, another Pharaoh, panicked by interpretation of a nightmare, ordered all
