

Passover Message

BY MRS. CHARLOTTE JACOBSON
CHAIRMAN, AMERICAN SECTION
WORLD ZIONIST ORGANIZATION

The Exodus is history's first and most inspiring march for freedom. Its annual celebration for more than 5,000 years as a festival commemorating the first successful struggle for the freedom of an entire people has been a beacon of hope to all peoples who seek liberty and the right to govern themselves and to determine their own national destiny.

Passover tells us that though the Jewish people had suffered the humiliation and affliction of slavery, with our exodus from bondage to salvation we achieved the glory of liberty for the Jews as freemen and women in the land of Israel.

As Jews we know what affliction means as symbolized by the Passover matzoh -- the bread of affliction. That is why we accept the obligation to succor those in need. We extend aid to the boat people of Vietnam and Cambodia. We are now also determined to aid our own through Project Renewal.

We also call upon American Jewry this Passover to be ever vigilant and determined to impress upon our government Jerusalem's importance to us as pronounced in the Seder service which begins with "L'shana haba'ah b'Yerushalayim" -- "next year in Jerusalem."
