ISRAELI TROOPS RETALIATE AFTER TERRORIST MASSACRE

BAT MITZVAH

CARLA

Carla Rose Kushner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Kushner, was called to the Torah and became a Bat Mitzvah during services at Temple Beth Shalom, 1600 E. Oakey Blvd., on Saturday morning, May 10, 1980.

Rabbi Kalman Appel, spiritual leader of the Temple, officiated and conducted the services which commenced at 9:30 A.M. Cantor Simon Bergman chanted the liturgy.

The parents of the Bat Mitzvah hosted the congregation to a Kiddush after services.

MILITANTS DEMAND WEIZMAN RESIGN

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Beefed - up Israeli police and troops in full battle gear patrolled the West Bank following the terrorist ambush in Hebron May which left six dead -- all of them yeshiva students -- and 16 wounded. The terrorists fired automatic weapons and hurled hand grenades as the group of Orthodox young people were heading from Friday night services at the Cave of Machpela Synagogue at the Tomb of the Patriarchs toward the old Hadassah building in Hebron.

Security authorities believe that the terrorists are not infiltrators but West Bank residents since they discovered locally - made cigarette butts at the ambush site. The Palestine Liberation Organization in Beirut claimed responsibility for the outrage.

Three of those killed were from the United States and Canada: Zvi Menachem Glatt, 21, of New York; Eli Hazeev (Wolf) 32, believed

ISRAEL WILL SELL COMBAT PLANE

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The United States has agreed to allow Israel to export its second generation combat plane, the Lavie, Defense Minister Ezer Weizman announced. U.S. permission is needed because the plane will be powered by a General Electric engine.

Weizman made his disclosure after returning from Washington where he met with President Carter, Defense Secretary Harold Brown and other U.S. officials. The U.S. had earlier objected to Israel selling its first generation jet fighter, the Kfir, causing Israel to lose many sales. Weizman said the new agreement will allow Israel to sell to any country to which the U.S. sells arms.

Weizman, who met with President Carter at the White House for 30 minutes, told reporters in Washington he had "met an old friend who took courageous decisions."

Sleep Well, Uncle Joe

BY JAY TELL

UNK JOE

They say imitation is the sincerest form of flattery.

If so, our Uncle Joe, who passed away last week at 67, was flattered all his life.

And he loved it.

A learned man, Uncle Joe read books from Shakespeare to Scarne. He is survived by his mother Bessie, sisters Bea and Dorothy, brother Sy, brother-in-law Bill, and a multitude of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Our dear, loveable Uncle Joe. No one ever disliked him.

He was a lawyer for more than four decades. A heart of gold. Every client became his friend.

At his eulogy, Rabbi Sidney Nissenbaum recalled how "his friend" Joe did not die of heart failure, despite what the doctors say, because his heart never failed anyone. His generosity and sensitivity touched all of our lives.

Joe never married, the good Rabbi continued, but he was in every sense a family man. At his funeral, family came from near and as far as 3,000 miles. Not out of any sense of duty, but simply because we all loved Uncle Joe.

He is now pleading a case before a jury some-
