

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

LONDON (WNS) -- Mercury was found in a cargo of Israeli oranges being unloaded at a British port, sparking fears that Arab terrorists would try to repeat the scare they caused two years ago.

NEW YORK (WNS) -- Abraham Dwek, president of the Committee for the Rescue of Syrian Jewry, has urged President Carter and United Nations Secretary General Kurt Waldheim to aid Syrian Jews in emigrating in the wake of recent harassment of Jews in Damascus and Aleppo. Dwek said that Jewish women were raped "by Syrian security forces" in Aleppo and a Jew had been shot and seriously wounded by militant Muslims in Damascus.

JERUSALEM (WNS) -- Premier Menachem Begin is reportedly considering moving his office to East Jerusalem into one of the new government buildings now under construction, just across the former demarcation line with West Jerusalem.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Israel will export 400 tons of apples to Egypt as part of the normalization agreements between the two countries. In return, Egypt will send Israel 400 tons of garlic.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- The office of the small leftwing Sheli faction was vandalized by unknown persons who wrecked equipment and furniture. An anonymous telephone caller told newspapers that a group calling itself "Terror Against Terror" was responsible because Sheli was connected to the "anti-Zionist revolution." Terror Against Terror was one of several hitherto unknown groups that claimed credit for the bomb attacks against West Bank mayors. Meanwhile, Sheli has announced it is setting up an unarmed militia to protect its members and property.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Police and troops, aided by helicopters, were searching June 11 for eight-year-old Oron Yarden who was kidnapped but not released after his parents paid the $43,000 demanded by the kidnapers. The youngster, son of Amos and Penina Yarden, of the wealthy Savyon section of Tel Aviv was last seen entering a car in a Savyon shopping center.

TEL AVIV (WNS) -- Police are searching for a sniper who severely wounded an Israeli soldier in Bethlehem causing the loss of an eye. The soldier, who was on duty in the center of the city, was hit by a bullet fired from the direction of a construction site. The same day, an Israeli youth, on the way to the Western Wall in the Old City of Jerusalem, was assaulted by three Arabs and badly beaten with a blunt instrument which fractured his jaw.
