ALCAZAR HOST RETURNS

THE BEST OF DANCE, FROM PARIS, FRANCE -- That's what Desert Inn show goers are treated to when they see the spectacular stage revue "ALCAZAR DE PARIS."

Directed by Dick Price, the show sports the theme "New Year's Eve in Paris"...complete with balloons and confetti.

Hosting the show is the multi-talented Peter Haener, returning to the "ALCAZAR" following a two-month absence. He brings a lifetime of theatrical experience to the Desert Inn Crystal Room stage where he shares with Minka, the female star of the show.

They are joined by an entertainment ensemble that could well be the most talented group of dancers to appear on the Las Vegas "Strip."

You need not cross the Atlantic, nor wait until December 31st. Come celebrate New Year's Eve at the 8 p.m. dinner show or midnight cocktail show of "Alcazar de Paris" at the Desert Inn.

Reservations are taken daily beginning at 10 a.m. by calling 733 - 4566. The show is dark on Mondays.

Our lobsters are so big they have to be flown in on 747's.

They arrive here from Maine fresh daily. Swimming in huge tanks. 4 lb. lobsters. 5 lb. lobsters. 6 lb. lobsters. The biggest, most tantalizing and succulent lobsters you've ever laid eyes on. Choose the size and price you like. A 4 lb. lobster can satisfy a small army. It's a feast beyond compare for people who have a passion for lobster. Served up in the authentic old New York atmosphere of the Fulton Fish Market. With a menu that doesn't stop with lobster. It's one of the four great old New York restaurants that's making us the new favorite of Las Vegas.
